Sheriff will prepare police activity tally

By HENRY CANTIN

Preliminary negotiations on the reopening of a city-county approved three-year law enforcement contract to provide additional police protection in the City of Romulus have been completed.

A documented report on increases in police activities in the city and other related facts is being prepared this week by officials of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department for submission to the Romulus City Council.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Division currently is the city's law enforcement unit.

A recent recommendation approved by the city council authorized and directed Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and City Attorney John E. Young to open negotiations for an additional police patrol car with appropriate police personnel.

Loren Pittman, deputy Wayne County Sheriff and Frans Heidelman, director of community relations for the county sheriff's department, met last week with Young.

A lengthy discussion was held and reports of increase police activity in the community, which currently has two police patrol cars operating on a 24-hour basis, also was discussed and is being documented for council's consideration.

"We want to document our report on police activity in the community. We want to show what kind of activity and in what areas of the city," Pittman said. He added that when the report is completed it will contain his recommendations.

Sixteen police officers from the sheriff's department road patrol unit are presently assigned to Romulus' law enforcement work and patrol duties.

The three-year police protection contract between the city and the sheriff's department was approved on Aug. 10, 1971. It calls for an annual payment of $378,432, or $189,216 per police car. It is the first contract of its kind in the State of Michigan.

The recommendation calling for additional police protection was initially made by Council President Jimmie Raspberry.

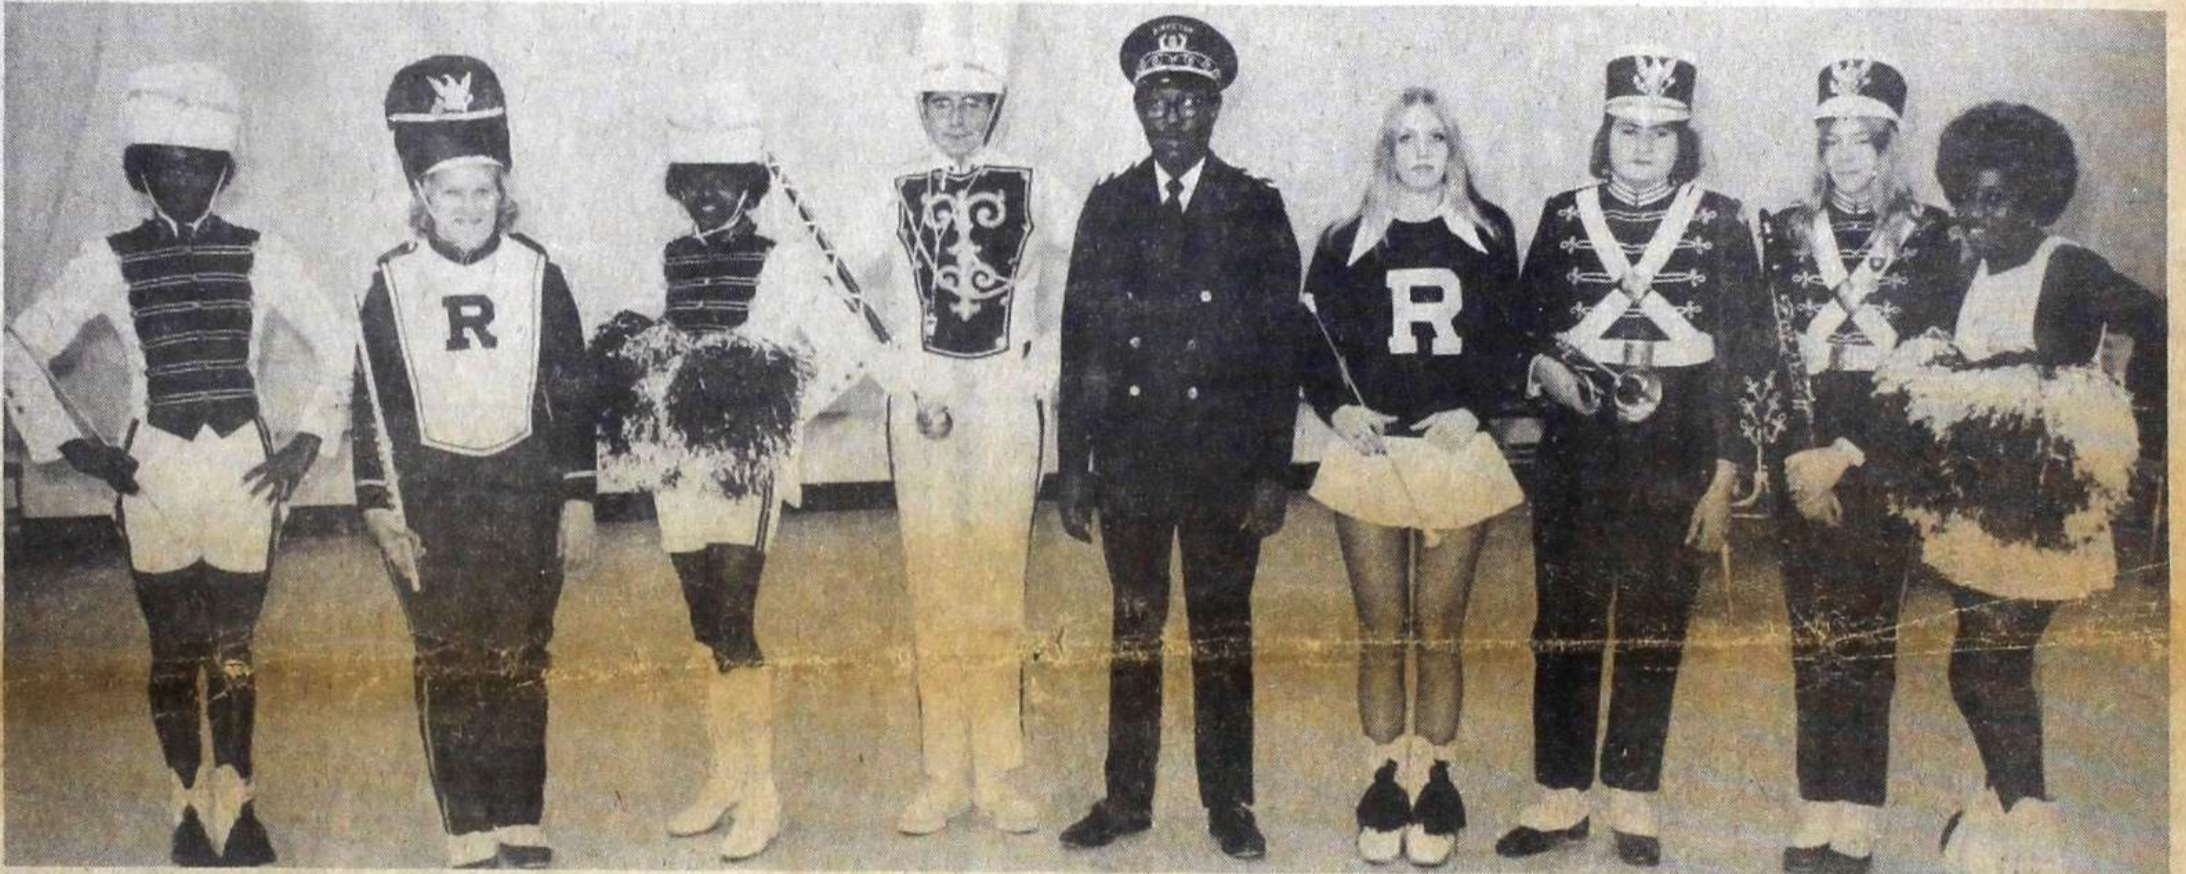

Councilman Brooker R. Edwards formally introduced Raspberry's suggestion at a recent council session. He was supported by Councilman Edmund W. Bizek.

The suggestion and motion received the unanimous support of council members.

Action by the council is initiating negotiations for additional police patrols was prompted by the current city-federal investigation of conditions in two relatively new subdivisions in the city.

Residents of the Meadowdale and Applewoods Subdivisions have made numerous complaints of vandalism, thefts, malicious destruction of property and numerous violations of city codes and ordinances.

NEW AND OLD — Students at Romulus High School pose in both the new and old uniforms worn by the school's marching band. The more elaborate costumes are the new. A band-o-rama will be held tonight to help pay for the uniforms. Band members are (from left) Irene Courtney; Karen Warfield; Cassandra Hamlin; Keight Cardwell, drum major; Gideon Pettway, band director; Shelly Wilsie; Thomas Higgins; Janet Milatz and Rendell Wooden.

For Romulus school bus

Board approves added stops

By KAY DeBORD

Two additional school bus stops were approved by the Romulus school board Monday night.

The action was taken following a letter from a resident, Thomas J. Wright, 15950 Inkster Rd., who cited the need for additional stops due to heavy traffic in the area.

Students being bused to Romulus High School will be picked up at stops at Elward and Inkster Road, and at 15200 and 15738 Inkster Rds.

School Supt. Robert McConeghy asked for the board's directive in regard to payment of more than $2,800 to Anderson Jahr Associates on the construction work on Merriman Elementary School.

The final payment to the architectural firm has been delayed due to drainage problems at the school.

Following discussion, the decision on payment was tabled until the next regular meeting of the board.

McConeghy also presented newly-revised "ground rules" governing field trips for students in the Romulus School District. The revisions were necessary because of the increased requests being received from teachers and students, according to McConeghy.

The new rulings will outline the procedures to be followed for educational field trips regardless of whether they are during class time, after school hours or during vacations and the board's area of responsibility and liability.

The action is not an attempt to deprive teachers and students of trips with educational values, but will serve as a guideline for all concerned, the superintendent said.

The board is to be advised well in advance of any proposed trip.

The ratio of adult staff member or other approved personnel other than the bus driver, including spectator buses for athletic activities, was outlined, and it also was the board's decision that no pre-schoolers or other than Romulus school students could be included in the transportation on field trips.

The changes in the procedural policy as presented by McConeghy was unanimously approved by the board.

In other action, the board approved:

—a change of status for Miss

Rosemary Binson, a teacher at Romulus High School, from substitute to a regular contract.

—a leave of absence of a junior high teacher due to reasons of health.

—a resignation and the retirement request of Mrs. Dorothy Westergard, home economics teacher, effective the second school semester.

WHAT'S THE SCORE? — Searching through the music score library for the selections for the fund-raising performance that will be given at Romulus High tonight, are (from left) Carol McGinnis, Cecilia Melton and Karen Warfield. The band, under the direction of Gideon Pettway, will be performed at 7:30 p.m.

Council rules on building

The Romulus City Council is to rule this week on a resolution authorizing the construction of a proposed new 34th District Court building in the City of Romulus.

The resolution has been presented to the city council by the Romulus Building Authority, operators of the community's new municipal complex, located on the southeast corner of S. Wayne and Goddard Roads.

If the council grants its final approval, the three member building authority will proceed with the necessary steps in filing an application with the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing for its approval on the issuance of bonds to assist in financing construction of the new court facility.

According to proposed plans the new one-story court structure is to be erected near two existing buildings in the city's municipal complex — the Romulus Municipal Building and the Romulus Public Library.

The civic center complex is being built on 16 acres of city-owned land situated at S. Wayne and Goddard Roads.

The new 34th District Court building would replace present court facilities at 30420 Eureka Rd., Romulus.

The present court is housed in the old Hale Elementary School, a 60-year-old converted frame school house. The City of Romulus spent more than $70,000 in a remodeling program of the old school building.

The court serves the community of Belleville, Romulus and the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren.

The city hall and the public library were built at the cost of $1,975,000 and dedicated in September, 1971.

Leo Kalota secretary of the building authority and Harold Dubiski, chairman, said a bond issue of $640,000 would be required to finance the balance of the total construction cost.

The total cost of the new court building would be reduced by $250,000 which is the sum that remains from the financing of the municipal complex's two initial structures.

Wayne boy dies in fire

A three-year-old Wayne boy was killed early Saturday morning when he ran into a burning Romulus home searching for his grandmother.

Charles W. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Lewis, of 32642 Westwick St. apparently did not realize his grandmother, Mabel Lewis, had already escaped from the home.

Wayne County Sheriff deputies said attempts were made to reach the child, who could be heard calling above the roar of the flames but intense heat and smoke forced firefighters back.

The Lewis child had been staying overnight with his grandmother and an aunt, Melody Lewis, at the home at 8900 Whitehorn St., Romulus.

Mabel Lewis told investigating sheriff deputies that she discovered a fire in the back porch area of her home at approximately 2 a.m. She said she awoke her daughter who then took the Lewis child out of the house.

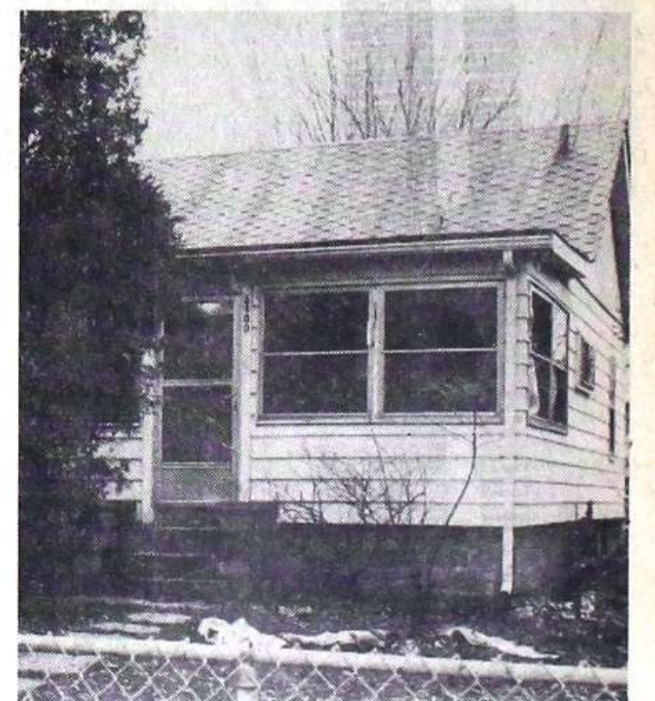

Mrs. Lewis said she followed her daughter and grandchild out of the home. The boy was placed in an adjoining yard while the fire department and police were called.

The boy, apparently frightened, began calling for his grandmother and climbed over a fence into the yard of the burning home. Still calling, he ran past his grandmother, who tried to catch him, and into the house.

The child was found by firefighters lying in the bathtub. He was transported to Wayne County General Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival at 3:25 a.m.

Sheriff deputies said the boy had no burns on his body and officials at Wayne County General said he apparently died of smoke inhalation.

Mabel Lewis was transported to Annapolis Hospital, where she was treated for shock.

HOUSE FIRE — Charles W. Lewis, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, 32642 Westwood, Romulus, died in a fire that broke out in enclosed porch of a home, at 8900 Whitehorn St., Romulus. The boy ran back into the house to find his grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Lewis, who had already escaped the blaze. Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Commission gives money for aging

Lloyd R. Johnson, chairman of the Michigan Commission on Aging, has alerted all governmental units organizations and agencies which are concerned with the needs of the aging that funds allocated under the new Revenue Sharing Act may be used for programs for the aging.

Federal guidelines for the expenditures of these funds stipulate that money sent to local communities must be spent in one or more of eight priority categories, including social services for the poor and the aged.

Michigan's share of these funds is $221,900,000, two-thirds of which will be divided among the units of local government, namely counties, cities and towns.

The Michigan Commission on Aging is urging local governments to see that some of these funds are used for social services for the older persons.

In addition, the commission feels strongly that programs that are worked out for the use of these funds by local government in such areas as public safety, environmental protection, public transportation, recreation and libraries can and should include special provisions for dealing with the needs of older persons.

The commission has asked local jurisdictions to see that services for older people are included in revenue sharing at the outset.

If they are not, plans for the use of these funds will be frozen and the elderly will not receive anything approaching a fair share, according to the commission.

3 films to rehabilitate drinking drivers available

Three educational films which have proven successful in helping to rehabilitate the drinking driver in other states recently were presented to the Wayne County Alcohol-Highway Safety Project by Automobile Club of Michigan.

The films — "Drink, Drive, Rationalize," "Snort History" and "D.W.I. Phoenix" — were presented to project coordinator Walter Kowalczyk.

The films will be used by the county to orientate motorists with drinking problems into the programs, which consist of eight to 12 hourly educational classes. The "D.W.I. Phoenix" film, for example, shows how this Arizona city has been so successful in rehabilitating the drinking driver.

Motorists with drinking problems are sent to the county program by the courts or the Department of State either after being convicted of drinking and driving or being ticketed or involved in an accident after suspected drinking.

Family finder

Mark enjoys sports

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series of monthly articles which introduce adoptable children to area residents. The series, which runs on the fourth Wednesday of each month, is designed to find homes for children who are considered "hard-to-place" because of mental or physical handicaps, race or age.

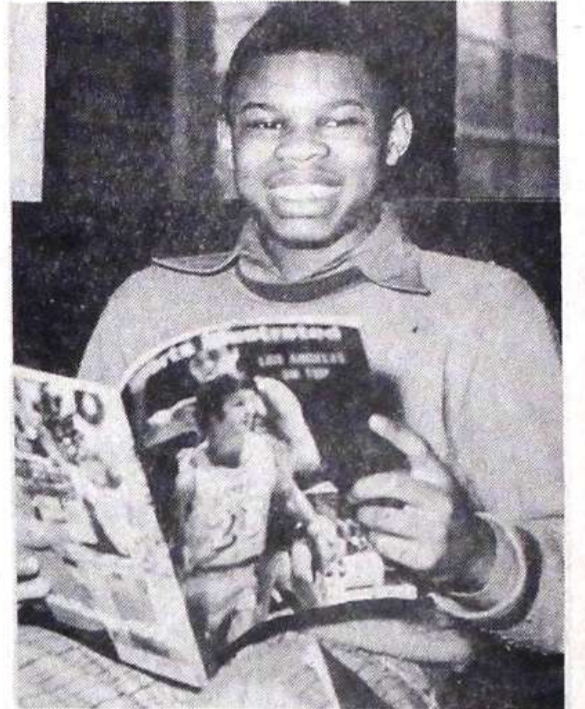

Mark is a 14-year-old black youth who is in excellent health and enjoys sports and movies.

The nice-looking, tall teen-ager is somewhat quiet but friendly. Mark gets along well with his peers, is fairly independent and is very inquisitive and curious.

Although Mark's grades are slightly below average, teachers say he has no behavior problems. As a 9th grader, Mark excels in physical education at school. Mark has been in the same foster home since 1961. His foster parents are older and unable to adopt him. Although the boy has mixed feelings about adoption, he would be willing to consider it if a family expresses an interest in him.

Mark would like to find a two-parent family who is active and enjoys different activities together. It is very important to him to find a father who enjoys sports as he does. It would be "okay" with him if the family also included other brothers and sisters. If you have room in your home and heart for Mark, contact Mrs. Naomi A. Peters, adoption supervisor, 640 Temple, Room 416, Detroit. Or call, 229-9240.

Adoption workers are very interested in finding a family who can love Mark. There are no adoption fees.

SPORTS ENTHUSIAST — Fourteen-year-old Mark enjoys sports and would like to find a father who could enjoy sports and movies with him.

Two area men have joined the United States Marines Corps.

They are Kenneth E. Newman, 6884 Inkster Rd., Romulus, and Clarence W. Kiser, 36808 Evans, New Boston.

Newman enlisted for two years and departed for training at Paris Island. He is a former Romulus High School student.

Ken's brother, Ricky C. Newman, joined the Marines in June, 1970 and is now a Marine Corporal in North Carolina.

Kiser entered the Marines Corps Delay Program and will depart for recruit training at San Diego, Calif. on Feb. 23.

He enlisted for three years. Kiser is a 1972 graduate of Huron High School.

Harold Walker, son of Mrs. Katherine R. Walker, 36541 Wick Rd., Romulus, has been promoted to sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

Sgt. Walker, a procurement specialist at Charleston AFB, S.C., serves with a unit of the Military Airlift Command which provides global airlift for U.S. military forces.

Walker is a 1970 graduate of Romulus High School.

Pvt. Roderick R. Soja, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Soja, 1064 Sumpter Road, Belleville, Mich., recently completed eight weeks of basic training at the U.S. Army Training Center, Armor, Ft. Knox, Ky.

He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military justice, first aid, and army history and traditions.

Pvt. Soja received the training with company A, 8th battalion, 4th brigade.

He was graduated from Belleville High School in 1968 and received a B.S. degree from Eastern Michigan University this year.

Airman Joan E. McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCormick of 11303 Exeter Rd., Carleton, has been assigned to Keesler Air

JOAN E. McCORMICK
Force Base, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

During her six weeks at the Air Training Command's Lackland AFB, Tex., she studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

The airman has been assigned to the Technical Training Center at Keesler for specialized training in the administrative field.

Airman McCormick is a 1972 graduate of St. Mary Academy in Monroe.

Mrs. Meckler gets promotion

Mrs. Anne Meckler, an Associated Newspaper employee for 15 years, has been appointed manager of the accounting department.

Mrs. Meckler came to Associated Newspapers in 1957 as an accountant and has worked for the paper since that time.

A widow, Mrs. Meckler is the mother of five children and the grandmother of four. Her youngest child will graduate from Wayne Memorial High School in June.

She views her job as simply "handling the money problems." Her department is responsible for reconciling all the different accounts within the paper.

A native of Canada, Mrs. Meckler is a naturalized American citizen.

Airport chamber tries to step up organization

The recent election of four new members to the board of directors and subsequent election of five executive officers by the Romulus Metro International Airport Chamber of Commerce is gradually showing chamber operational improvements.

"The executive board plans to step up the pace of the entire organization," said Mrs. Dolores Ristow, director, executive secretary and public relations officer of the chamber.

The main objective of the chamber's board is to actively involve the entire membership in some capacity on its various committees, programs and community projects.

"Having the members personally involved will give them a better understanding as to what the chamber of commerce is doing in their behalf and that of their community," Mrs. Ristow said.

The chamber's new board of directors, after taking a close look at the chamber's by-laws, immediately asked Richard Enright, the chamber's newly elected president, to appoint a committee to review the by-laws and make suggestions and recommendations and report back to the board within two weeks.

"Now that the chamber is more than two years old, the present directors can see from past experience, the many areas where the by-laws have had their shortcomings in relationship to the effectiveness of the chamber's operations," Mrs. Ristow said.

Another step toward the efficiency of the chamber was the new board's committee beginning work immediately on the guidelines concerning a change of time and place for the 1973 scheduled general membership meetings.

The president instructed the committee to present their proposed ideas to the entire board at the next regular meeting of the chamber.

"It is the unanimous goal of the board to adopt a meeting schedule that will be more attractive in the future to the chamber membership and bring about a more positive attendance from members," Mrs. Ristow said.

Mrs. Ristow, who also is chamber's liaison representative to the Romulus

City Council, said that the new program with the city administration in behalf of the chamber is working extremely well with full cooperation from Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael and his staff.

The mayor said he would like to see the chamber's membership increased and is willing to do what he can to keep his promise of a closer city-chamber relationship.

In an effort to increase the chamber's membership, Enright and Mrs. Ristow have sent letters during the last three weeks to Romulus business establishments acquainting them with the chamber and its purpose. They have plans to send out a follow-up letter.

Mrs. Ristow asked the city treasurer's office to make available to the chamber, the October, 1972 Romulus Street map.

The chamber's public relations department has received assistance from the city's urban renewal director, George Wilhelm.

He furnished the chamber with map brochures containing an illustrative site plan of the city's initial urban renewal project, a project area map and a large map showing areas surrounding the urban renewal project and their inducements for future community growth. The chamber is holding a meeting on Dec. 11.

James Stewart may run as Romulus mayor

James C. Stewart, veteran member of Romulus government and current member of the Romulus City Council Monday said he may run for mayor of Romulus in the 1973 non-partisan race.

Stewart, a resident of Romulus for more than 17 years, resides at 7164 S. Harrison St., with his wife, Irene. They are the parents of two children.

"I am thinking and planning on entering the mayor's race in the 1973 election (August, 1973) but have not made any official pronouncement of my candidacy," he said. "My supporters and I decided to wait after the first of the year in initiating a campaign committee assignments."

The city official is self-employed and owner of the Romulus Welding Co.

The present mayor Hyle J. Carmichael has not yet made any announcement on whether he will seek re-election. Stewart was a member of the old Romulus Township Board of Trustees. He was elected Romulus Trustee in 1966. He served as highway commissioner in 1964 to 1966. He also has served on the old township planning commission prior to being trustee and served as chairman of the board of appeals.

Lighting request sent to Edison

The request for street lighting on more than eight new residential streets in the City of Romulus has been forwarded to the Detroit Edison Co.

The Detroit Edison Co. is automatically sent requests for street lighting when new streets are opened, according to City Assessor Harold E. Reiner.

He said it is up to the firm to initiate the installation program.

Another method of getting street lighting he said is for residents in the area involved to file a petition with the city to have street lighting installed.

A special assessment district is then set up and costs for the street lighting is assessed against the property owners in the district.

Clayton W. Meldrum said the city's new Subdivision Control Ordinance adopted in May, 1972 requires subdivision developers to build streets, install lighting and grading.

Moratorium is issued

A moratorium on all residential eviction notices and wage garnishments has been issued by Judge James B. Stone of the 34th District Court from Dec. 4 through Jan. 8.

On PCHA borrowing

Probe continues

By LUCY WIESEND

The Michigan Attorney General's office is continuing to investigate the Peoples Community Hospital Authority's (PCHA) funds and its proposed borrowing of $2.5 million for additions to two PCHA facilities.

Assistant Attorney General Maxine Virtue and James F. Marling, executive secretary of the Municipal Finance Commission, are leading the investigation.

"They (PCHA) are undertaking an expansion program at two of the hospitals," Marling said Wednesday. "We were made aware of what they were doing and how they were planning to finance it, but the attorney general had some questions."

PCHA at its Oct. 26 board meeting decided to begin construction projects to expand Wayne's Annapolis and Lincoln Park's Outer Drive hospitals. Despite the investigation, the expansion projects are continuing as planned, according to PCHA Board Chairman Donald J. Pizzimenti last week.

"Our feeling is that we are keeping in line with our statute," he said. "So we are going to go ahead with construction."

"Things have been very confused, and there has been a misunderstanding as to whether or not we borrowed money. We only got a commitment from the bank."

In May, the authority was told it would receive a $600,000 federal grant for the project from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, which distributes the funds under the Hill-Burton Act.

"If we do not begin the project we will lose the $600,000 grant and so will the state because it cannot be allocated to another facility," legal counsel Charles B. Cozadd told board members last month.

Sources in Lansing said PCHA needed a total of $5.4 million, which along with $600,000 in Hill-Burton money could be used to finance the expansion of the hospitals.

The sources also said PCHA has through June to apply for the Hill-Burton grant.

Mrs. Virtue and Marling were directed by the Municipal Finance Commission to ascertain how much PCHA has generated from internal operations and how much money they will be able to generate to pay for the expansion programs.

PCHA said it has 2.7 million available and will be able to get another $2.7 million from internally generated funds that will be enough to qualify the project for Hill-Burton funds, according to a Lansing source.

Cozadd told board members last month that he had been working on several approaches to finance the PCHA building program which was stalled in September because of the indecision arising from the Michigan Supreme Court ruling on the Detroit sports stadium case.

The authority had expected to okay the sale of $5 million in bonds at a Sept. 7 special meeting, but was told by bond counsel that he could not recommend approving the bond sale.

"On Aug. 1, the Municipal Finance Commission approved issuance of $5 million bond by PCHA for remodeling," Mrs. Virtue said. "We now learn those bonds were not sold or issued because bond counsel was opinioning bonds due to some language the Supreme Court used in the recent stadium case."

After Mrs. Virtue and Marling complete the investigation, the attorney general will decide whether PCHA has enough money to qualify for the Hill-Burton grant and whether the method of borrowing is legal within statute.

Michigan's hot dog needs citizens' help

By WILLIAM FAUST, State Senator, 13th District

Hail to the Michigan hot dog. It still remains supreme with the highest ingredient standards for comminuted meats in the United States.

But, how long is another question. Recently, the Federal Court of Appeals struck down the state's comminuted meat law on the grounds that federal law supercedes the Michigan law. (Comminuted meats are ground meats and the Michigan law not only covers hot dogs but sausage, bologna and other luncheon meats.)

The lawsuit was brought about by three of the nation's largest meat packers — Hormel, Wilson and Armour — which challenged our high state standards in favor of the lower federal requirements.

The federal standards allow the use of tongues, spleens, snouts, ears, lips, hearts, udders, stomachs, bladders and salivary glands in hot dogs, sausages and lunch meats.

Michigan standards permit the use of only skeletal meats, which is any clean edible part of striated muscle including head and cheek meat. No meat by-products, water or cereal are allowed.

In addition, federal standards permit such terms as "packed for" or "distributed by" so the name of the manufacturer is not disclosed. Our state laws require that the name of the manufacturer be on the label.

Other examples of where the Michigan requirements differ from the federal regulations is in sausage processing. The federal law allows up to 10 per cent water and makes no protein requirements. Michigan allows no water and requires that the product be at least 12 per cent protein.

Michigan sausage can have no more than 45 per cent trimmable fat and may contain no water or ice. The federal regulation allows 50 per cent trimmable fat and three per cent water. Federally approved sausage allows goat meat and up to 15 per cent poultry. Pure poultry sausage is permitted in Michigan only if it is noted on the label and poultry is not allowed to be combined with any other meats in sausage.

I can cite numerous other examples, but I believe that I made my point that Michigan ground meat laws are far superior to the federal regulations.

This whole controversy began three years ago when the three meat packers filed suit. In November 1971, the Federal District Court in Grand Rapids upheld the high Michigan standards and held that federal meat laws were written to provide a minimum nationwide standard - not to prevent states from having higher standards.

The three out-of-state companies appealed and the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati ruled that our meat laws must conform to federal laws.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture has appealed this decision to the U.S. Supreme Court and, presently, that's where the entire matter rests.

In the meantime, a stay has been granted making it illegal to sell any comminuted meats in Michigan that don't meet state requirements.

Now, where does that leave us the consumer? Well, if the Supreme Court rules in our favor then the tough Michigan standards are preserved. If not, we will have to resort to our representatives in Congress to amend the Federal Wholesome Meat Act and raise the requirements.

Consumers who want to continue obtaining wholesome meat should let their congressmen know that they are concerned about the meat standards and urge them to upgrade the federal meat standards to the Michigan level.

On my part, I intend to investigate every possible legislative method on a state level that will prod our lawmakers in Washington D.C. to raise the federal regulations.

In order to help consumers, the Michigan Department of Agriculture has provided "Michigan Grade 1" identifying labels to meat packers who conform to state standards. If the Supreme Court should rule against our state requirements, look for the "Michigan Grade 1" emblem on the package. Where the emblem is not shown, be sure to read the label which will identify any animal by-products if they are present.

Commissioners' stand on farm tax relief hit

To the editor: This letter is to clarify and give additional information to the article entitled "Commissioners oppose bill for farmer tax relief" in your Nov. 22 edition.

I am concerned about the quality of people on one of our major governing bodies (Wayne County Board of Commissioners) when they make such positive statements about legislation about which they are obviously not well informed. The two legislators I am talking about are Rose Mary C. Robinson and Paul Silver.

The legislation (H.B. 6229) mentions two types on land. These are agricultural and open space lands.

An owner of agricultural land could apply for specific per acre taxation if the farm is 60 or more acres and has been devoted to agricultural or horticultural use during three of the previous five years. Also, if the farm is five acres or more, but less than 60 acres with a gross per acre income of $100 or more during three of the five preceding years.

Land classified under the bill must continue in that purpose for at least five years and shall continue until withdrawn from classification. Two annual tax days must elapse after a request for withdrawal by the owner to the tax assessor. Upon withdrawal, the owner must pay the current taxes, with a five-year rollback of the difference between specific taxes paid and those that might be due under the regular assessment procedure plus six per cent compounded interest.

Additional heavy penalties are assessed if the owner changes the use of the land before withdrawal. These range from 12.2 per cent of the market value the first year, down to 2.4 per cent of the market value for five years.

The specific tax per acre is based on USDA land capability classes. The tax would range from $9 per acre in class 1 lands, down to $3 per acre in classes five, six, and seven.

Commissioners Robinson and Silver failed to mention the strict penalties and the tax payback contained in the legislation. Much of the land farmed in Wayne County does not gross $100 per acre.

The specific tax on qualified open land would be $6 per acre. In the article it was stated it would be $7 per acre.

Open land, to qualify, must be designated through official land use plans and must be approved by governing bodies. It also must follow several strict criteria, including conservation of natural and scenic resources, soil, beaches, wildlife preservations etc.

Other criteria include protection of streams and water supplies, enhancement of recreation and availability of public use based upon reasonable conditions required by the legislative body granting the open space classification.

H.B. 6229 is interim legislation in as much as applications would not be accepted after Dec. 30, 1975.

H.B. 6229 can help solve a serious problem in Michigan. It is designed to encourage preservation of agricultural soil and better land use throughout the state. It would help maintain good agricultural lands for future food and fiber needs, recreational areas and open space. This in turn can be helpful in proper land use planning and a reduction of haphazard sprawl.

I own and operate a family farm in Western Wayne County. This farm has been in my family nearly 100 years. I would like to continue at my present location, but will be unable to do so unless legislation such as H.B. 6229 is passed to give me relief from high property taxes.

I hope that our officials in commenting on legislation in the future include all the information concerning it.

Jaycees say thanks

To the editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to speak for the Belleville Jaycee Auxiliary and thank everyone in the Belleville and Ypsilanti areas for their fine support during the Belleville Junior Miss pageant.

We had the biggest turnout ever. The area merchants were very generous in their contributions. All of this including many very long hard hours of work by the seven women in our auxiliary, helped to make it a very exciting evening.

Our pageant chairman, Mrs. Helen Horton, is to be complimented for a job well done, also our auxiliary president, Mrs. Darlene Domen. Both women have worked extra hard the past few weeks.

Our excellent panel of judges has chosen a very vibrant young lady to represent Belleville, Miss Patti Wojtowicz, at the Regional Pageant in Marshall Dec. 8-9.

Many thanks again to all.

Discipline lack, drugs listed as top problems

Last weekend we had the pleasure of sitting in as a judge for the Junior Miss Pageant of a nearby community. While it wasn't one of the communities covered directly by The Daily Eagle, it is close enough to have many of the same youth problems as here.

In separate interviews by the panel of judges, the contestants - all high school seniors in accordance with Junior Miss rules - time and again mentioned the need for more discipline of the students and the dangers of drugs in the schools.

Survey results delayed week

Due to the number of responses received on our questionnaire concerning the Nov. 7 election, we have to break a promise and publish the results next week.

Having originally planned to use the results today, we've found ourselves unable to go through the many responses in time to draw adequate conclusions.

We'll have the results next week for sure.

Subdivision property buyers get protection

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK,
State Representative, 38th District

One of the bills signed into law this fall will provide new and better protection for persons who buy property in subdivisions.

The new law, which becomes effective April 1, will require the registration of subdivision lands before they are offered for sale.

The Department of Licensing and Regulation will oversee the sale of all subdivisions of 10 or more lots. This will also cover land outside the state if it is offered for sale in Michigan.

The law, known as the Michigan Land Sales Act of 1972, sets minimum standards of performance to be met by developers. They will be required to make full disclosure of all pertinent facts about the subdivisions, present plans to the Department of Licensing and Regulation before advertising the property for sale, post bonds and establish escrow accounts to ensure that all advertised improvements are carried out, and give buyers a free and clear warranty deed on the land.

Subdivision land sales have been rapidly increasing, both around major cities and in northern resort areas. This new law is the result of consumer complaints that promised improvements are slow in coming or not completed at all, that advertising material is at times false or misleading, and that in some cases the developer is unable to convey the land offered for sale.

Another new law will more tightly regulate the sale of cemetery merchandise and services. This act became immediately effective upon signing.

It requires cemeteries to place 70 percent of the proceeds of pre-need sales in escrow until the merchandise or services are provided. This covers such things as markers and monuments and the opening and closing of graves.

Under the new act, the State Cemetery Commission is authorized to set rules on the sales of merchandise and services, and to license salesmen.

There have been cases in which commercially-owned cemeteries have sold hundreds of thousands of dollars in merchandise and services and have been unable to produce the merchandise or the money.

Some cemetery corporations have gone bankrupt owing the public large amounts of money. There have, in addition, been recent cases of questionable practices by salesmen of cemetery merchandise and services.

It was felt, therefore, that persons selling merchandise and services should be answers they would want the judges to hear, since the Junior Miss Pageant does seek out the type of girl one would like a daughter to be. However, we feel the contestants were generally honest in their answers.

They expressed concern over students being allowed by some teachers to do virtually as they please or being able to roam the halls for almost no reason at all. Both they felt were wrong.

Some of the contestants felt more parental control was needed. One girl said it was no problem keeping school messages out of the home since she could tear up any note given her and get home before both working parents to check the mail. In other words, parent interest was needed in contacting the school.

One girl felt counselors could make better use of their time if they weren't so busy just trying to get students back into classes following suspensions or some other problems.

A contestant who said every student in her school had access to drugs, suggested that some way had to be found to get them to reveal names of pushers. The problem is difficult to solve since the students don't want to squeal on their friends.

However, it must be resolved along with the many other problems we face day after day.

'It'll fit okay when I've made a few changes-'

Speaking of schools

There's more to band than playing music

Each bandsman begins his journey into the realm of high school music education with a trip to LaGrange, Ind. for a week of band camp.

Two weeks before band camp, during pre-camp training, the bandsmen run laps and do exercises to strengthen the leg muscles and respiratory system. After their strenuous workout they are served breakfast. Attendance at training is voluntary.

During the stay at band camp, each bandsman participates daily in detailed music rehearsals, small sectional rehearsals and strenuous physical marching drills; with occasional periods of recreation and rest.

Every evening the bandsmen have organized activities, all of which are designed to get to know each other better before they start the work of the school year. Their week ends with a performance for the people of LaGrange and the band parents who drive down to see them.

Each bandsman attending camp is eligible for membership in the marching band. However, he must earn his spot.

The marching band allows the student of Belleville High School to combine his instrumental musical skills with that of the highly physical activity of the marching drills.

In addition to rehearsals in the regular school day, the bandsman is expected to attend a minimum of three-hours per week in after-school and evening rehearsals under my direction.

The marching band serves its school by performing during the halftime of seven to eight football games as the schedule allows. The band also provides other major public performances throughout the school year.

By GREG HEUER
Band Director,
Belleville High School

The finely disciplined young men and women of the band have a feeling of "belonging" that comes only from a high-spirited, proud organization. The opportunities for leadership abilities are many and varied.

Starting with the specific leadership duties of the rank leader, all the way to the creative mind of the business manager; each and every bandsman has the chance to serve and to learn. Pride, desire, and ability are the most important words to a Belleville bandsman. They are a proud group with the desire and ability to serve their community, and serve it well.

The Belleville High School Concert Band is designed to provide an instrumental experience to the student of the high school, who has had a minimum amount of training. This band offers two major public concerts during the school year as well as combining with the symphony band for the annual Picnic Pops Festival in June.

The concept of music for enjoyment would be the forte of the concert band, rather than the endless drive for perfection. As in the marching band, concert band members can be a part of a close-knit "second family."

A smaller aspect of the music program at Belleville is the jazz group. The jazz group provides an ensemble for the high school student who has had a considerable amount of musical training and wishes to play in an organization meeting entirely after school hours. This jazz group performs in three major public concerts, and is available for other performances as the schedule allows.

The library of the jazz group, purchased by the members, consists of the most current popular music available as well as dance band classics of the 1930's and 40's. The jazz group helps develop the quiet player as well as providing an outlet for the extrovert.

The largest musical organization in Belleville High is the symphony band.

This, the most advanced of the bands, is providing greater instrumental musical experience to the student with considerable instrumental training.

Like the concert and marching bands, it also meets during the course of the school day. The bandsmen of the symphony band are required to attend a minimum of three hours per week in after-school and evening rehearsals.

The symphony band gives five major public performances during the school year as well as the Picnic Pops Festival in June. They also provide music for the commencement ceremony at the school year's end.

Holiday hours start Friday, Dec. 1

Longer hours for shoppers scheduled

Starting Friday, Dec. 1, Manning's is adjusting its hours to meet its customers need for more shopping time. Monday through Friday, the store will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Then from Dec. 15 through 23, hours will be lengthened to 9 p.m. every night except Sunday. The store will remain closed on Sunday.

And as a gentle reminder to those who will be returning items, there will be no exchanges after Jan. 6, 1973.

Sir Jac — is 'cool'

Those jackets being modeled on this page by the Memering boys — Bob and Mark — have to be the 'coolest' jackets in town. Bearing the Sir Jac label, the coats might be 'cool' in the vernacular of the day but are the warmest thing to wear on a cold, blustery winter day.

FOR LITTLE GIRLS, TOO — The John Olivers consider Manning's 'just the place' to outfit their three pretty daughters (from left) Karen, three; Jenna, eight; and Ann, seven. Little Karen clutches the Carter's slacks she chose while Jenna holds pants by Health-Tex and Ann smiles over her Kate Greenaway frock. The girls' mother is Janet Oliver, director of the Janet Oliver Studio of Dance in Belleville.

A 'ROYAL' ASSIST — Although they're probably not aware that they're being assisted by 'royalty', Robert Memering, 10, (left) and his nine-year old brother, Mark, had the help of Belleville High's Homecoming Queen, Sue Bogardus, as they tried on their new coats. The Snorkel style jackets by Sir Jac come in sizes six to 20 and have a starting price of $22. The handsome young fellas are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Memering of Renton Rd., Belleville.

CHRISTMAS CHOICES — Looking over the wide selection of feminine items in Manning's lingerie department, Mrs. Mary Lou Memering decides on a short gown by Lorraine. Available in many pretty pastels, the Lorraine label also includes non-cling full and half slips, robes, slippers, and briefs in a number of styles. Mrs. Memering, whose sons are also featured on this page, is the wife of Bob Memering whose Marathon Service Station is located at Five Points in Belleville.

THE TEEN SET — Linda Amerman (left) looks over the Bobbie Brooks sweater which clerk Jennifer Lowhorn is holding. Available in junior sizes three to 15, the well-known label is found on slacks, skirts, vests, and blouses as well. The smart pant suit Linda is wearing is in navy and burgundy with other separates to match. The daughter of the William Amermans, Linda is granddaughter of Alton Amerman, owner of the Amerman Lumber Yard in Belleville.

Manning's is 'it' for name-brands

Manning's is practically 'Name Brandsville', were you aware of that? Name your favorite and you'll probably find it right there — on Main Street, Belleville.

How about Pendleton, Russ, Ship 'n Shore, Bobbie Brooks, Levi, Wrangler, or Aileen? Or perhaps scarves by Vera, handbags with the Jaclyn label or lingerie tagged 'Lorraine'?

Now 'Cross Your Heart', did you ever hear of a better selection in bras than 'Free Spirit', 'Living', or '18-Hour', all by Playtex? There is also a full line of foundation garments to meet all figure needs.

Tiny tots demand the best and you'll find it in items by Carter's, Quiltex, Kleinerts, and Curity. Not only will you find just the right Christmas gift for that infant on your list but you'll be amazed at the line of nursery accessories — colorful mobiles, baby books, plate and cup sets, and little toys as well.

Health-Tex plays an important role in just about every youngster's growth and there's a wide variety of pants, tops, pant suits, and outfits from which to choose. And, oh yes, be sure to look at those darling Kate Greenaway frocks for the princess in your household.

Mix 'n match ensembles have been about the greatest innovation in women's fashions in many a year and you can combine a size 12 skirt by Devon with a size 10 top — each coordinated in color and texture. Perhaps you'd like to make it a three or four-piece outfit by adding the slacks or vest to match. Devon's sharp dacron polyester knits start at size 10 and with prices ranging from $9 upward.

And for those after-shopping hours, you might choose a robe by Basila to slip into. Sized 10 to 44, there's a rainbow of colors in comfortable acetate, nylon or polyester. Gowns, pajamas and even bedrolls with matching pillows can make the scene under your Christmas tree this year.

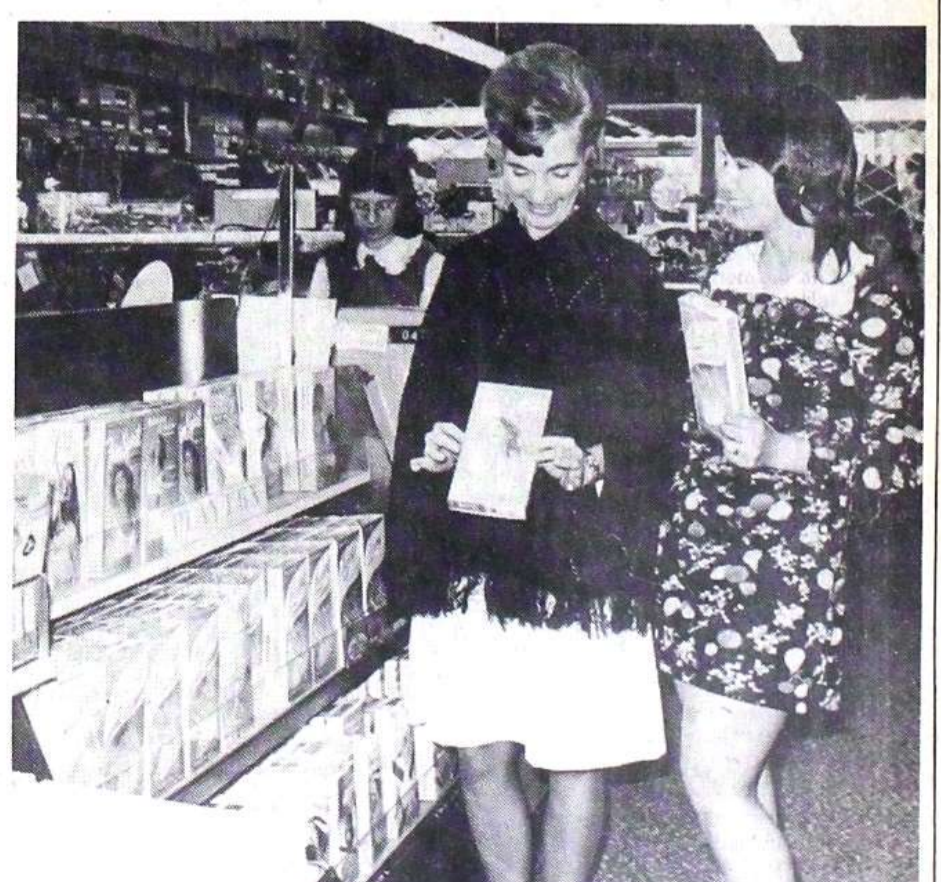

STORK SHOWER SELECTION — The infant's department at Manning's turned up just the right gift for Mrs. Virginia Carmichael to take to the baby shower she's attending next week. Romulus' First Lady, Virginia is the wife of the Honorable Hyle Carmichael, Mayor of Romulus. A native of the Belleville area, Mrs. Carmichael is assisted by clerk Ruth Smith as she decides on the bunting suit by Quiltex. Clever mobiles, baby books, blankets, and complete layettes also fill the shelves in the baby section.

MIX 'N MATCH — Looking over the Devon line of dacron polyester knits, which start at size 10, Mrs. June Roberts decides on the blouse and vest to match the rose slacks, jacket and sweater she is wearing and which she purchased earlier. Available in a variety

THE CUSTOMER IS ALWAYS (?) RIGHT — "Oh come on, Paula, 38-D?" asks Manning's manager, Mrs. Linda Stout, as she jokes with Mrs. Al Miller, one of the store's most popular patrons. Paula, who resides on Robbe St. Belleville, is shown in the foundations section where bras and girdles include such styles as Free Spirit, Living, Cross Your Heart, and 18-Hour. The personal wear is geared for every age and figure.

Manning's has face-lift

In the four and a half years that Manning's has been in the hands of Charles Trickey, Jr. and Anthony Delahant, Jr., the store has had quite a face-lifting. Not only were many smaller lines, such as notions, phased out but brand names were introduced to the area in wide lines.

The store itself has a complete new lighting system, new shelving and soft-tread carpeting. Remodeled and redecorated, the store features wall racks lined with merchandise, counters stacked with clothing and accessories, and shelves piled with hosiery, jewelry, pants, shirts, sweaters, handbags, hats, and mittens.

but one thing was not altered — the retention of two familiar faces in and around those aisles and counters. Laura Buck and Ruth Smith are still with the company. Linda Stout, who began work at Manning's the first day it changed hands, is still with the store in the capacity of manager.

Sue Bogardus, Belleville High's 1972 Homecoming Queen, is employed through the school's co-op program with Jennifer Lowhorn and Melodie Anderson filling the other two clerk positions.

Although they're a wonder at keeping out the weather, Sir Jac jackets are lightweight, smart and colorful.

Two new dressing rooms were also a welcome addition

Mrs. Carl Simmons of Liberty St. returned home on Saturday of last week after having spent 10 days in Kansas City, Missouri, with her son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Simmons.

Mrs. Hilda Keseric of Church St. has been a patient at Annapolis Hospital, Wayne, for the past week due to a heart condition.

Mrs. Helen White and son, James returned home on Monday of last week after having spent a long weekend in Effingham and Mattoon, Illinois, visiting relatives, among them a niece, Miss Linda Slugocki, from Los Angeles, California.

SERVE IT WARM — When neighbors drop by for coffee, be ready to serve them something you've made yourself, such as Sunny Coffee Cake. It's a tender and moist coffee cake with a crumb topping and it's deliciously flavored with orange-flavored instant breakfast drink which might also accompany the cake in place of coffee. Serve it warm for that extra goodness. (Courtesy Tang Instant Breakfast Drink.)

If it's one of those morning when you wake up happy and want to share your feelings with the rest of the world, make a coffee cake and invite friends over to enjoy it.

Sunny Coffee Cake is a moist and tender cake that is perfect for morning get-togethers. A delightful flavor prevails because orange-flavored instant breakfast drink is an ingredient in both the cake and the crumb topping. It tastes delicious with coffee, of course, but for those who might prefer a cold drink, serve it with chilled orange-flavored instant breakfast drink.

Let Sunny Coffee Cake be the center of attention at your next neighborhood coffee. Or, have it on hand for a great way to begin your day with the family. It's certain to draw smiles from everyone.

Sunny Coffee Cake

- 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon Tang Instant Breakfast Drink — Orange Flavor
- 2 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- One-third cup shortening
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon Tang Instant Breakfast Drink — Orange Flavor
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 cup soft bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- 2 tablespoons chopped nuts

Sift flour with 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon instant breakfast drink, the baking powder, and salt. Cut in shortening. Combine egg and milk; add to flour mixture and mix only until flour is dampened. Spread half of batter in greased 8-inch square pan.

Mix 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon instant breakfast drink, and the cinnamon. Add bread crumbs and melted butter; toss lightly. Stir in nuts. Sprinkle half of crumb mixture over batter in pan. Spread remaining batter over crumb mixture in pan; top with remaining crumb mixture. Bake at 400 degrees for about 35 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Serve warm with butter, if desired. Makes 9 servings.

Alternate Baking Pan: Cake may also be baked in greased 9-inch square pan for about 30 minutes.

Women of the Moose

Belleville Chapter 1135: To start off December, there's a dance being held Dec. 2 with the "Suspended Dimension," super rock group. It's going to be different, so everyone come and let's rock, starting at 9 p.m.

We will have two meetings in a row because of the Christmas holiday. Meetings will be on the second Monday and third Monday at 8 p.m. The chapter will hold its Christmas party on business meeting night Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. Bring a $1. gift for the grab-bag.

Christmas party for the children of the Moose will be held Dec. 17. Let's make this Christmas one the children won't forget.

We want to take this time to send our best wishes and congratulations to our brother of 934, John R. Johnson and his wife, on the birth of their baby son.

We have a co-worker in the hospital, Marcella Schneltz, who's at Riverside Hospital in Trenton. Get well soon, Marcella.

Don't forget our fish fries every Friday night from 5 to 8 p.m. with the sing-along, too.

Changing times

As everybody knows, women are changing with the times. Now at last one highly successful lady is changing, too — namely, Miss Clairol. This haircoloring product changes to a new formula, with new ingredients to control hair color and help it stay true, longer. The whole thing is a big surprise, since a successful product never, but never, changes its formula. But, it seems, even the best can be better. What next? Who knows, someday Miss Clairol may be Ms. Clairol.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

The tree that never had to fight... For sun and sky and air and light... That stood out in the open plain, And always got its share of rain. Never became a forest king, But lived and died a scrubby thing... The man who never had to toll, Who never had to win his share... Of sun and sky and light and air, Never became a manly man, But lived and died as he began... Good timber does not grow in ease; The stronger wind, the tougher trees; The farther sky, the greater length; The more the storm the greater strength, By sun and cold, by rain and snows, In tree or man good timber grows... (Anonymous) ...

The poem tells a story. When you see people being goaded to reach goals set FOR them, not BY them; when you see people determined to do the thinking for others in a sometimes peculiar concept of helpfulness or welfare... would it not be proper to remember the story this poem tells?

Thanksgiving — a day to remember

A TIME TO BOW our heads and say thank you for the many blessings we enjoy each year, thanksgiving abounded in family gatherings here at home for many and out-of-town for others.

They were out-of-town

DOING A BIT of traveling on the holiday were Chet and Mary Kosin and their children who motored to Saginaw. Arriving before noon at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, the Frank Lasks, they enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres while watching the Lions-Jets game on T.V.

For the 3:30 gathering-of-the-clan, the Lasks had reserved the Penthouse Room at the High Life Inn in Saginaw. And for the first time in many years, the ENTIRE family of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maziarz of Bridgeport was on hand to share the festivities - their seven children and offspring numbering 40-plus.

The day was capped with a co-op dessert party back at the Lasks before everyone started home.

ALSO OUT OF town and guests of relatives were Roger and Aileen Allyn who week-ended with the Gerald McCormacks (her sister and husband) in Bay City. Their parents, the Howard Dietzs of Livonia who supplied the holiday turkey, were also houseguests for the week-end.

On Saturday the group was invited to the Saginaw home of the McCormack's daughter and son-in-law, Janey and Howard Loebstall, for cocktails before attending the wedding of Howard's sister, Anne Marie Loebstall, and Bill Dahl at the Baptist Church there.

ALSO AWAY over the week-end were John and Marge Roberts of Lake Pointe Pass who drove to Cleveland to celebrate the 87th birthday of his mother, Mrs. Ida M. Roberts, on Saturday. The party was held at the home of John's sister and brother-in-law, Anne and Earl Blewitt.

Making the trip with the Robertses were their neighbor, David Eller, who is friends with the two Blewitt boys, Craig and Douglas; their daughter and son-in-law, Vicki and Mike Barnett, and their two little girls, Tytti and Connie, of McBride Street.

On Thanksgiving Day, John and Marge entertained four Zantop Airlines pilots who were unable to be with their own families for the occasion.

Traditional dinners held by families

HOSTING DINNER at three o'clock Thanksgiving Day were George and Maxine Heifner of Edison Lake Road. Celebrating with them were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turtle of Lincoln Park and George Heifner, Sr. of Southgate; George's sister, Janie LaLande and her four children of Lincoln Park; and Maxine's brother and wife, Woody and Georgette Turtle, and son, Scotty, from Trenton.

THE GAMBLERS—Dick, Patt and Terri—sat down to turkey and all the trimmings at the home of Patt's parents, the Warren Duford's of W. Huron River Drive. Others at the table were David Duford and Dennis Harkness.

Missing from the scene this year were Verne and Elita Kiff who moved from Belleville last June and now reside in Lancaster, California. But a cross-county phone call tied the two groups together and sorta made up for their absence.

A DOUBLE CELEBRATION took place at the Fay Ferguson's Judd Road home Thanksgiving Day. Following their one o'clock dinner, their children brought out a special cake and gifts to mark their 37th wedding anniversary.

The surprise gesture included Marie Dozer of Ann Arbor (her husband, Jim, being a patient at Veteran's Hospital), Bob and Lucie Ferguson, Donna and Michael, and Roger and Diane Ferguson with Leslie, Shawn and Shari, all from Belleville; and Richard and Lennie Ferguson and Sandy from Plymouth. Brian Shephard also dropped in to share the festivities.

CARRYING OUT a tradition of some 21 years standing, the Bert Smiths of Edison Lake Road and their three daughters, Luanne (home from Kalamazoo College), Sue and Carol, joined Bert's parents, the Alonzo Smiths of Willis, for their annual one o'clock repast.

Coming in from Rantoul, Illinois for the week-end were Don and Pat Freitag, Mitchell and Cindy; and from Chelsea and Willis, respectively, the Bob Smith and Leonard Burrell families. Missing this year were the junior Al Smiths who were vacationing in Florida.

Thanksgiving Eve the Bert Smiths entertained Luanne's roommate, Linda Temple, and her parents, the Joseph Temples and sons, John and Jim, who were enroute from Midland to Detroit where they planned to spend the holiday and see the Lions-Jets game at Tiger Stadium.

FORMER BELLEVILLITES, Perry and Bev Points, who have a new home in Howell, invited both sides of their family for Thanksgiving dinner. Included on their guest list were Bob and Kathy Miller and their two youngsters, Michelle and Jeffrey, of Edgedale Drive and Glen and Maxine Miller and Mrs. Ruby Miller of Elwell Road. Others came in from Wayne, Willis and Ypsilanti and numbered 25 in all.

Out-of-state guests arrive

OUT-OF-STATE guests at the Madelon Street home of Don and Jean Meyer were members of his family from Rochester, Minnesota. His nieces and their husbands, Carleen and Chuck Haggerty with Terry and Kevin and Donna and Ray Stevens, made the trip together via auto while their parents, Dale and Ruth Molda, flew into Metro Airport.

Also home for the holiday week-end were the Meyer's sons, Ron, who jetted in from Dallas, Texas; Kevin, home from Central Michigan University; and Tom from Ypsilanti.

Here'n there... over the holiday

THE GERRY MILLER'S turkey dinner was shared with their son, Jeff, and daughter, Pam, who were home from their classes at Michigan State University for the week-end ...JOINING DIANA MORIARTY and her two boys at their Fret Road home on the holiday were friends from Grosse Ile, Edie Dascola and her three children ... NORTHERN MICHIGAN was the week-end destination for the Tim Tresch's of Romulus who drove to Beulah on invitation from his sister and husband, Kathy and Mike Gallagher of Flint who annually open their 'summer' home on Crystal Lake for the holiday. The 22 guests attending included Tim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tresch of Birmingham, and another sister and family, Gayle Ford, her husband Ben, and their twins, David and Dawn, from Oxford.

JIM AND CAROL FITCH entertained the week-end before Thanksgiving, combining holiday festivities with the birthday of Jim's mother, Mrs. Glenn Fitch, who arrived from Hillsdale with her husband Friday night. That evening they attended their granddaughters', Pam, Holly and Cindy's, piano recital at Chapelle School in Ypsilanti.

The following day, the birthday-lady was guest of honor at a dinner attended by Miss Jean Fitch and Mr. and Mrs. David Fitch and son, Peter, all from Lansing.

At home and away for Thanksgiving

INVITED TO TAYLOR for the holiday, Al and Shirley Straub of Elwell Road were dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Kathy and Jim Darnell. Another daughter, Dawn Bruder, was home from Eastern Michigan University for the occasion. Keith Bruder, unable to get away for the week-end, called the Straubs from Chicago to wish them a happy Thanksgiving ... IN DETROIT to join her sister, Mrs. Anna Bresinski and family, for turkey dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Merecki and daughter, Marilyn, of E. Huron River Drive. Another of the Merecki girls, Nancy, attended with her husband, Larry, and their two children, Nikole and Timmie ... KIRK OWEN, who is serving with the U.S. Navy on Guam, was able to arrive home in time for the holiday with his parents, the G.W. Owens of Edison Lake Road.

MISS FRITZ

Warren girl, Tony Villa are engaged

A December 16 wedding in Detroit is being planned by Diana Helene Fritz of Warren and Anthony Villa of Belleville.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice J. Fritz of 3509 Dolores, Warren, and the late Walter F. Fritz. A graduate of Fitzgerald High School and Wayne State University, she is currently employed as a secretary.

Her fiance, son of Samuel Villa of Harris Road, Belleville, and the late Mrs. Villa is an alumnus of Belleville High School and Detroit Institute of Technology. He is employed as a construction engineer in Southfield.

SASSOON DIPLOMA — Holding the diploma awarded to her during recent hair-styling seminars is Mrs. Glenn (Suzanne) Swoff of Chez Suzanne's Beauty Shop, Belleville. Mrs. Swoff recently attended sessions in new curling techniques, hair painting, wiggery, and other new innovations in the world of coiffures in Columbus, Ohio, Detroit and Lansing. Vidal Sassoon conducted two of the workshops himself. Mrs. Swoff is shown among the wide selection of wigs in her shop.

Hair stylist earns Sassoon diploma

This fall has been a busy time for Mrs. Glenn Swoff of 74 South Street, Belleville. Known professionally as 'Suzanne' of Chez Suzanne's Beauty Shop, Mrs. Swoff has spent countless hours furthering her knowledge of hair techniques.

In September she was in Columbus, Ohio for three days of intensive study and work shops conducted by Mr. Tony Backerman of London, England, an assistant of Vidal Sassoon, who works out of Chicago. At that session she received a certificate qualifying her for the thermo curling technique established by Sassoon.

On November 5 she attended a seminar at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel in Detroit where she learned the art of hair painting from the Zigarelli Brothers who were presented by Clairol. The following day she attended a class conducted by Vidal Sassoon and again was instructed by Sassoon at a November 12 seminar in Lansing.

SUZANNE WAS GRADUATED from Cherry Hill High School and the Virginia Farrell School of Beauty in Detroit. She then attended the Virginia Farrell Academy where she further studied permanent waving and high fashion and also received a diploma in wiggery.

Her first job as hair stylist was at the J. L. Hudson Company in Westland, later working at Bernard's in Westland after her marriage to Mr. Swoff.

On moving to Belleville in 1969, she worked in local beauty salons until April 1, 1971, when she decided to open her own shop. She currently employs two experienced operators, Miss Marlene Szambelan and Mrs. Wanda Tarr, both of Belleville.

Weber-Cooper vows repeated

The Chapel of Bethlehem United Church of Christ in Ann Arbor was the setting for the recent wedding of Wendy Lynne Weber of Belleville and Anthony C. Cooper of Ypsilanti.

The Rev. David E. Trost presided at the one o'clock nuptials witnessed by some 35 close friends and relatives. For the double ring ceremony, the altar was appointed with an arrangement of white daisies.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lanham of 4604 Lake Villa, Belleville, and Dr. Edwin Weber of Cedar Falls, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cooper of 1589 Andrea, Ypsilanti, are the bridegroom's parents.

DR. WEBER ESCORTED his daughter to the altar. She appeared in a toe-touching gown of white dotted swiss designed with full sleeves, a high neckline and flounced hem accented with clooney lace. Her cathedral-length mantilla veil was caught to a lace Juliette cap and a bouquet of white daisies completed her bridal finery. As maid of honor, Deborah Knight of Grass Lake donned a pale blue frock trimmed in white. Her accessories were chosen to harmonize and her bouquet was comprised of white daisies.

The bridegroom's cousin, Melvin Shunk of Ypsilanti, served as best man. The bride's brothers, Mark and David Weber, were ushers.

On receiving the 40 guests at a reception in her Lake Villa apartment, Mrs. Weber wore a floor-length gown in forest green. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Cooper, chose a lavender gown in formal length.

FOR TRAVELING TO Chicago and Waukegan, Illinois, the new Mrs. Cooper chose a two-toned lavender dress with white accessories. The bridegroom, a Belleville High School alumnus, completed his basic training with the U.S. Navy at the Great Lakes Naval Station at Waukegan and is now based in Orlando, Florida.

His bride attended Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor before transferring to Belleville High School.

Students inducted to honor society

BY TOM KETCHUM

Monday was the day for the National Honor Society's Induction Ceremony. Twenty-nine new members were added to the organization. Speeches in the program were given by Donna Silvenis, Mary Ann Salutz, Dan McClure, Cathy Petrasky, Dixie Sullivan and yours truly. Mr. Richendollar, principle at North, was guest speaker. Music was provided by the choir and the New Belvil Jazz Group, Marching Society, and Students' Conservatory Band.

The Belleville High School Bands will present a concert Dec. 9 that will feature the Concert Band (Mr. Hill, student teacher, will conduct a number), the Jazz Band, and the Symphony Band, which will perform the "world premiere" of the band arrangement of "Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso."

Last Tuesday and Wednesday were the days to be scared. The student council sponsored the movie "Ten Little Indians." Students were allowed to go to the auditorium during their study halls to see the spine tickler.

Huron

Students go to convention

BY LINDA PHIPPS

Once again, Huron students had a holiday. This time our three-day week was due to Thanksgiving.

High school students from all over the country took the opportunity to attend the annual Journalism Education Association Convention, held at the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago.

The junior high sent five of their "budding journalist" under the guidance of Mr. Phillip Fosgate and Linda Phipps.

Topics included newspapers, yearbooks, editorship and advertising. All in all, it was a worthwhile experience.

A coupon offered the chance to win a loaf of banana nut bread, a pumpkin pie or a 12 lb. turkey.

Last Tuesday a group of FHA members visited a convalescent home in Wyandotte. The girls brought ice cream cones and also a lot of company for the patients.

Mr. Patterson, drafting teacher, said "goodbye" to Huron last Wednesday. He is going to a job at Woodhaven.

Miss Joyce Johnson, home economics teacher, was married to Roger Gorkiewicz Nov. 18.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Byron K. Antcliff. They "were presented" with a nine-lb. eight-oz. "bouncing" baby girl on Nov. 16.

Government teacher, Mrs. Schimming will be spending "her last day" at Huron this Friday. Her maternity leave begins.

Twenty-eight Belleville Senior High School students Monday were inducted into the high school's chapter of the National Honor Society.

The annual induction assembly was held in the Belleville Senior High School Auditorium.

The induction ceremonies opened with a processional selection by the new Belleville Jazz Group entitled "We've Only Just Begun" by William and Nichols.

The new members being inducted in to the National Honor Society were welcomed by Donna Silvenis, president of the high school's chapter of the National Honor Society. James Richendollar, principal of the North Junior High School, presented the opening address and Belleville Senior High School Principal John P. Ford, introduced the new members.

Presenting the history of the National Honor Society was Miss Mary Salutz, secretary of the high school chapter.

Reading of the ritual on the various aspects and qualities of membership into the society was presented by the following current members: character by Miss Dixie Sullivan, leadership by Dan McClure, scholarship by Cathy Petrasky and service by Tom Ketchum.

The National Honor Society's pledge was administered by Miss Silvenis.

New students inducted into the National Honor Society are: Phoebe Arnett, Sandra Bacome, Sue Briggs, Keith Carnahan, Cheryl Cilia, Carol Chen, Debbie Costa, Mark Davis, Fred Flavell, Mark Fogarty, Beverly Freysinger, Jeff Gale, Sheri Gatto and Cindi Hammond. Other students are: Kim Hogan, Colleen Johnson, Cheryl Knight, Sue Koski, Deborah McCully, Rhonda Overman, Cynthia Palmer, Darwin Perry, Cheryl Schroeder, Pam Strand, Mark Von Diestinson, Edward Wilson, Richard Wilson and Lorel Wolfe.

The faculty sponsors were Mrs. Helen Wilson, Mrs. Dinna Smith, Richard Steiger and Richard Dokas.

Current officers of the National Honor Society at Belleville High School are Miss Donna Silvenis, president; Dan McClure, vice president; Miss Mary Salutz, secretary; Miss Priscilla Flotte, treasurer; and Tom Ketchum, sergeant-at-arms.

The present members of the National Honor Society are: Lisa Archer, Mary Arrick, Michael Beck, Barbara Beech, Mark Bryant, Kathleen Chen, Karen Dyer, Katherine Florian, Priscilla Flotte, James Friar, Brenda Gollwitzer, Thomas Griffith, Vicki Henry, Thomas Ketchum, Victoria Kuzmin, Dennis Lochrie and Suzette Martin.

TURKEY IS PET — "Tom," one of four turkeys purchased this year by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cundiff, 45267 Bemir Rd., Belleville, was spared on Thanksgiving Day because he has become a "family pet." Tom visited the third grade class at Elwell Road Elementary

Newberry Street residents must wait for gas service

Residents along Newberry Street in northern Romulus will have to wait until the middle of next year to learn if they can have natural gas service extended to their homes.

A Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. official has indicated that his company probably will not be able to study the area until spring due to the number of petition surveys already in progress in southeastern Michigan.

"Our study is necessary for the economic feasibility of extending service from our existing service lines," said David G. Charboneau of the company's residential and commercial gas marketing department in a reply to the Romulus City Council.

"When the test study is completed," he added, "We will contact you on our decision. There are certain restrictions that are placed on our ability to install gas lines over long distances to render service to a few potential customers."

City Clerk Leonard J. Folmar recently asked Michigan Consolidated Gas about the availability of service in the area. His request was accompanied by a petition containing the names of the residents of the street.

Newberry is a two-block street running south from Van Born Road just east of Wayne Road.

School brochure distributed in area

A brochure intended to assist new area residents has been prepared and distributed by the Van Buren Public School District.

The four-page booklet contains a photo of members of the Van Buren Board of Education, an introductory letter from School Superintendent Dale E. Kaulitz and a directory of the district's schools and their administrative personnel.

The brochure also contains the current school calendar and a map showing the locations and boundaries of the district's schools.

Damage is approved

A property damage claim filed by John Troshak of 12300 Ryznar Dr., Van Buren Township, for $500 has been approved by the township board.

Interior property damage resulted from the failure of a lift pump, located in the front of Troshak's home on Sept. 26, according to Troshak.

Household furniture and carpeting was damaged when sewer water flooded the home.

Snowmobiling causes accidents

Michigan snowmobiling activity in the winter season 1971-72 resulted in 2,028 accidents which claimed 30 lives and injured 1,969 other persons, according to State Police traffic division data.

Compared with figures for the 1970-71 season, the totals were increases of five in deaths, 132 in injured and 93 in accidents.

Department of State registrations of snowmobiles in Michigan as of this fall approximate 300,000 vehicles. Unknown is an accurate number of the machines operated on private property and requiring no registration. This number may range up to 40,000.

Of the 30 persons killed, 20 were in the 15 to 34 age group. Another three were younger and the remaining seven were older.

The injured breakdown included 223 in the 10 to 14 age; 317 in 15-19; 261 in 20 to 24; 486 in 25 to 34; 331 in 35 to 44; and 182 in the 45 to 54 range. Seventy-five injured were older than 54 while 88 were younger than 10.

The breakdown of major categories of accidents involving snowmobiles included overturning 385; other non-collision 466; pedestrian 30; motor vehicle in transport 319; parked motor vehicle 79; animal 5; fixed object 665, and other object 79.

Of the accidents, the majority (1,762) occurred in off-roadway areas while 266 happened on roadways.

The light factor in the accident total included daylight 995; darkness no lights 893; darkness with lights 24; dawn - dusk 78; and condition not stated 38.

Shopping center slated for area

A proposed shopping center is slated on a six-acre parcel of land recently rezoned by the Belleville City Council.

The land site is located on the east side of Sumpter Road between Owen and Spencer Streets.

The land, now owned by Robert R. Kelly and Bonnie Benedetti, has been rezoned from R-1 (multiple dwelling) to B-3 (business).

The developers who have an option to purchase the land site, plan the construction of a drug store, supermarket, garden center and several small stores.

Rawsonville Lions sponsor Santa visit

The Rawsonville Lions Club will sponsor the first official visit of Santa Claus and Miss Christmas Carol to the area on Dec. 2.

Club has attempted," Kehrer said. "With the shared interest of giving Santa Claus a warm welcome, the combined spirits of the Lions and the community promises to make this Candy Land project not only a community first, but first in the hearts of our children and a wonderful success."

Fred Kehrer, chairman of the club's Santa Claus committee, said Santa Claus will visit four locations within the Rawsonville Woods area on the four weekends prior to Christmas Eve.

Santa will be in the following locations:

The Lions Club will build Santa a portable 12-by 12-foot Candy Land Palace. The structure will be assembled and fully decorated at the location of Santa's visit.

S. Phillip Grillo, M.D., of Belleville, has been named a fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians.

American Board of Family Practice.

The degree of fellowship is an acknowledgement of successful completion of 600 or more hours of accredited continuing medical study, or attainment of diplomate status in the specialty of family medicine as a result of passing a certifying examination administered under the aegis of the Fellowship entitles the conferee to use the title, "Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians," or "FAAFP." The degree was conferred Sept. 26th.

The American Academy of Family Physicians, representing more than 32,000 family doctors, is the only national medical group requiring members to take continuing study.

Mayor goes to pollution session

Mayor Royce E. Smith of Belleville attended sessions of Michigan's Department of Natural Resources (DNR) hearing held in Lansing Thursday on the appropriations of state money to combat pollution.

The City of Belleville's application for a $800,000 grant for the construction of a sewer separation program for the city.

There was no official action and the DNR is to be scheduled another hearing next month. No date has been set for this meeting.

Voting machine will change congress tradition common. Both groups will have to learn how to operate the newly installed automatic voting system.

Undoubtedly it will take some members a little time to get used to the new electronic setup scheduled to go into operation when the new congress convenes in January.

In a sense installation of this mechanical device is yet another sign that Congress, despite tradition and habit, is creeping into the 20th century just when the end of the century itself is coming into view.

A couple of years ago the Senate installed amplifiers at each member's desk so that the senators themselves, members of the press and visitors in the galleries actually could hear what was being said on the floor.

Now the House has taken a timid step toward modernization by installing electronic voting a generation or so after many state legislatures had gone over to such instant voting systems.

Beginning in January each of the 435 members of the House will vote or respond to a quorum call by inserting a plastic card keyed to his name in one of 49 voting stations situated around the floor.

The member then will push one of three buttons — green for yes, red for no or yellow for present. All members names will be carried on a giant scoreboard on the south wall of the chamber. As the member pushes a button a light flashes beside his name showing how he voted.

On the east and west walls just below the galleries, two identical panels will record a running tally of the vote, list the number of the bill and show the time remaining to vote. Fifteen minutes will be set aside for each roll call. Time will run from 15 minutes down to zero like a football scoreboard.

When the time is up the presiding officer will lock the machinery and announce the vote.

A lot of members are going to find they will have to hot foot it to get to the floor in time to be recorded. Under the old system, with a clerk calling the list of members twice, it took 30 minutes to get through a roll call.

Unlike a state legislature where most of the members are on the floor or nearby, Congressmen are spread out in three House office buildings. Some have offices as far as two blocks from the chamber. Even with the underground passages and underground train they have, it still means they have to get up and go when lights and buzzers in their offices indicate a vote is being taken.

Green needs solitude to think up his songs

By MARY CAMPBELL

Al Green is all over the record charts. And when he sings in New York, he's all over town.

On the best-selling record charts on Nov. 18, a new single, "You Ought To Be With Me," was No. 16 and climbing. A four-year-old single, "Guilty," was No. 72 and on its way down.

On the LP chart, the new "I'm Still in Love with You," was 15 and climbing and the record "Let's Stay Together" was remaining at 74. On the rhythm 'n' blues chart, "You Ought To Be With Me" was 9 and "Guilty" was 17.

When Green performs in New York, it's usually at the Copacabana nightclub and at the Apollo Theater in Harlem, which draw different audiences.

Green's gold records are "Look What You've Done for Me," "Let's Stay Together," "Tired of Being Alone" and "I'm Still in Love with You" plus the LP "Let's Stay Together."

"I'm kind of self-contained anyway. I like to be on my own a lot."

Westland woman to solo

A Westland woman will be among the featured soloists when the Madrigal Club of Detroit presents its winter concert at 3 p.m. on Dec. 10 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Mrs. Joyce Butler will sing with the women's chorus which is performing in its 57th year. For the past 26 years the Madrigal Club has been under the direction of August Maekelbergh.

Tickets are priced at $2 and 50 cents for students and will be available at the door.

The Madrigal Club will also be performing a half-hour television program, "Madrigal Christmas" on WWJ-TV Channel 4 on Dec. 23.

Inkster girl performs in WMU Arena play

An Inkster freshman at Western Michigan University (WMU) will be appearing in the WMU Arena Theatre production of James Baldwin's "The Amen Corner" tonight through Saturday.

Donna McClendon, a speech pathology student and graduate of Robichaud High, will be appearing in the role of Sister Boxer. The play presents religious impulses and feelings within the black culture in the big city ghetto of Harlem.

Miss McClendon has appeared in the Robichaud High production of "Nobody Knows" and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt, 27165 Kitch, Inkster.

Tickets for the 8 p.m. performance are available daily at the Shaw Theatre box office.

HELPFUL NEIGHBORS — The fathers of the young lovers offer each other some gardening advice in "Plant a Radish", one of the familiar songs in "The Fantasticks." Carl Schuman does some pruning on Floyd Guernsey's scarf as Juan Pablo Verde, portraying the mute, provides the necessary rain.

YOUNG LOVERS — They may not always be aware of it but their young love is growing in the Wayne-Westland civic players' production of "The Fantasticks." The lovers are played by Lydia Droz and Gary Rieck.

AND NOW, FOR JUST a little while... a peace descends which is both a slight respite from the year's bustle... and a sort of "ull before the storm" of running even faster next month! Our cares disappear when we enjoy safe harbor where the world's greatest Hosts, Frank and Lucille Skrumbellos, welcome their friends at THE GOLDEN COIN, 1870 S. Wayne Rd., just S. of Palmer in Westland. Cynics grown weary of the cacophony of TOO "Hip", prefer that it stay "far out", while they join people lovers at Frank 'n' Lu's "Coin", now going into the sixth year of serving contented Guests. The Food is not the random sampling of Chef-after-Chef, but the sum of an entire lifetime spent perfecting Culinary Art, with the Family in the Kitchen. You'll find them also, at the Door remembering your name; passing your table... to assure your total satisfaction; whispering to "THE CELEBRATION", their Thursday-Friday-Saturday Entertainers, just what your Musical preference is! If there's a Birthday happening, let someone know so that you may enjoy a little surprise! If there's anything at all you feel like Celebrating, and especially NEW YEAR'S EVE, THIS IS THE TIME AND PLACE TO MAKE Reservations! There's peace when you want it... F-U-N when you want it... great food and pleasant folks all the time! How's come I'm "sending Valentines" in November? Because I want my friends to meet, that's why. C'mon over! If you're the 1st to recognize me... I'll treatcha!

SUDDENLY... THE MUSIC STOPS. Rich Wise rises. "There's only one thing worse than raining cats 'n' dogs" he observes. "And that's hailing Taxicabs!" Now he turns to Denny Karp. "Call me a taxi!" he demands loftily. Denny looks up... plays a bar looks up again. "You're a taxi," he sez, unperturbed. Corny? The crowd doesn't think so. It's the "warmup"... and they love it! Now the music resumes and talk picks up at the tables. Dancers move on the floor again. The mood changes with the moment, the way the weather did last week. And people keep jamming into BEAU-J'S the way they did last week, too... and all the other weeks! Are "THE FRIENDS"; Rich & Dennis; the reason? A BIG part of it, for sure! They've been making good music and funny jokes for a quarter-century or so... and they qualify as capital "E" experts. Other reasons round out this wham of a success known as BEAU-J'S LOUNGE, at 13090 Inkster, S. of Schoolcraft, in Redford Township. For some, it's as simple as a gigantic Beau Burger Garni and a cup of delicious Soup... or a Maurice Dressing... or hot Hors D'Oeuvres. For some, it's the proximity to DRC. For some, it's the swift, friendly people around you. But the WHOLE thing... and more, works together to make you happy you came over! And what do "The Friends" say about happy? "It's got 5 letters... just like Beau-J" sez Rich. Denny doesn't disagree. He plays a bar. You continue having fun...

WHILE GUITARIST ANTONIO, "El Trovador Michuacano", and his Compadre, CARLOS played "Spanish Eyes" for my Lady... I attended the excellent and authentic Musico by foot-tapping, and walked my imagination around the room. Here... a couple in formal attire. There... at the little table beyond the fireplace, lovers smiling across the candle light. At the happy bar, every bit the total Mexican "Cantina"... the young Bachelor alone, who speaks to Antonio in his native tongue... and tells us later that the food is more truly Mexican here than back home in Acapulco! Seemingly, nothing could make El Nibble Nook more perfect... until appears our lovely young Hostess. Her name is Stefanie, she informs us. Stefanie is the hostess when lovely Audrey Bayer, Wife of Major, Chuck Bayer, has the evening off. And she explains everything on the VERY ample Menu, while waiting on us personally. Then she stays to chat about her trip to Europe, and about the authenticity of El Nibble Nook... and to charm us totally and even more: to increase our enjoyment of this so different and intimate little spot tremendously! We come away knowing that the Staff is as great an asset as... the very different Bill of Fare... and Senior Antonio. And that together they are the sum total of great pleasure. And hoping you'll drop by soon... because we love it when you write and say "Muchas gracias!"

THE YOUNG OFFICER had been in Viet Nam, he told us... for twelve months and two Bob Hope Specials! Looking around CARRIAGE HILL, at 27200 Cherry Hill, in Dearborn Heights, he added, "I dreamed this place was real... but I was afraid to believe in dreams any more." "To the Carriage Hill," we toasted. "May it be a dream-come-true forever." For DON MCKENZIE, with a history in the business, and the sure knowledge of what spells perfection in a posh Supper Club, it must be a "dream come true". For the Patrons who line up for tables, who wait gladly to enjoy the famous Food and Music, who even sit on the edge of the hearth with their Cocktails, just as happy as our young friend to be there, it's still another kind of dream. Because now, when sudden gusts of wind scatter the last snowy leaves across hollow places like a strand of broken pearls... you suddenly feel winter closing in... and want someplace warm and happy to go. The Carriage Hill is such a place! Soft voices... loss-your-own Salads... a creative Menu... a huge, crackling fire... even Music to get warm by, lets you know the "War is over"... and your dreams can come true. For this Dreamer, Carriage Hill is a vitamin pill that makes you feel like playing Golf at daylight... or like listening to the OLD Gopher, Mr. MCK., lead his Combo out on the Stage... with music that makes you feel like Dancing til Golf time!

COME SPRING... just about the time the grass and that Office "Grab Bag" Jewelry start turning green... you'll STILL be remembering the coming Holidays as the greatest you ever had! Because THIS year'll be the one where you were a guest at your own party! Just call HUGH GEDRICH, at 421-0990 and tell him to Deck the Halls, for whatever number of people will be celebrating! IDYL WYLD GOLF CLUB, at 35780 Five Mi., Rd., in Livonia, will become the scene of the Memorable Festivity, whether you're planning for 10 people... or 500!! We were amazed to hear that there were still some openings for Christmas and New Year's Parties, (each will be planned for your specific group) in a private Banquet Room, or inside the Club Room where Nick Lawrence & his Orchestre provide Mirth and Music with a show which has been received beautifully around the world! Your party can happen any time of the day. Make it Brunch, Lunch, Cocktails and Dinner... have an Orchestra upstairs... join the fun and crowds (always plenty of both) in the main Room, where the Bar and Kitchen are BOTH open! It's time to leave. At IDYL WYLD... you celebrate every Occasion... and every Occasion BECOMES a Celebration! Just tell Hugh the size of your Party... and when, and he'll reserve your Fun Space.

Season opens for Players

The curtain goes up this weekend on the Wayne-Westland Civic Players' production of "The Fantasticks," the first musical performed by the group in six years.

The play is a whimsical, imaginative satire of young love as it grows to maturity. The young lovers will be played by Lydia Droz of Franklin High School and Gary Rieck of John Glenn.

Their harried and sometimes conniving fathers are played by Floyd Guernsey of Wayne and Carl Schuman of Livonia. Performances are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday at the John Glenn High School Auditorium. Tickets are $3 and $1.50 for senior citizens and students.

4 join Jaycees

The Romulus Jaycees have accepted four young men into club membership. The new members joined the Jaycees at a recent meeting designed to orient possible new Jaycees.

Welcomed to the Romulus Jaycee Club were: Ron Carpenter, 7475 Merriman Rd., Romulus, a body designer with American Motors Corp.; Dennis Oszust, 9451 Barry St., Romulus, a construction worker with Armstrong Construction Co.; Robert LaChance, 17349 Mansfield, Detroit, a school teacher at Romulus Junior High School, and Leo Whalen, 34942 Julie Dr., Romulus, a supervisor with West Vaco Corp. Frank Pawelak, representing the Michigan Jaycees and Gordon Silvey of the local club spoke on past, present and future needs for Jaycee chapters during the meeting.

Fire laws will be re-drafted

A re-drafting of Romulus' present Fire Lane Ordinance has been ordered by the Romulus City Council. By an unanimous vote, council members referred the fire lane ordinance to City Attorney John E. Young for re-drafting.

City assessor attends course

Harold E. Reiner, assessor for the City of Romulus has been granted council authorization to attend sessions of the Short Course for Assessing Officers. The course is to be held Dec. 4 to 6 in Ann Arbor. Reiner had requested permission to attend the course.

Jaycees to identify themselves

The Romulus Jaycees have found a way to make it easier for the public to find them. In the past, Jaycees have been hard to contact because there is no identification on their homes. Each Jaycee family will display a window poster which shows the Jaycee insignia and the phrase "We are a Jaycee family."

Salvation Army sale to be held

The senior citizens of Eventide Residence of the Salvation Army are planning a holiday bazaar at 2643 Park Ave., Detroit from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday.

A variety of items for Christmas gifts will be on sale at the various booths. They will include antiques, ceramics, knitted wear, aprons, plants, antique jewelry, baked goods and Christmas decorations. Many items were made by the residents. Lunch will be served during the afternoon. Proceeds of the Christmas Bazaar will go toward Eventide improvements.

Lions Club sells candy

The Belleville Area Lions Club is selling candy. Club members will be selling candy on the street corners Dec. 8 and 9 and again on Dec. 15 and 16. In addition to selling candy canes, members will be selling candy-filled glass jars designed as Snowman and Santa Claus.

Club members will entertain their wives Dec. 9 at the Danish Club, 22711 Grand River Ave., Detroit.

A Christmas buffet will begin at 7 p.m. followed by a gift exchange and afterglow at the home of Hellmuth Weiss.

Horse contest set at MSU

The 1972 Horse Judging Round-up will be held Dec. 8 and 9 on the Michigan State University campus by the university's extension service. For information, call 721-6550.

Romulus resident plays oboe

A Romulus resident is a member of the Central Michigan University Symphony Orchestra. He is Glenn Hayes, a sophomore, who lives at 7335 Hollywood St. Hayes plays the oboe with the orchestra.

HE GETS COLD TOO—The Michigan Humane Society reminds dog owners to make sure their pets are properly cared for in the winter months. If Fido or Rover sleeps outside make sure his dog house is properly insulated from the cold winter chill.

Some Michigan watchdogs aren't able to bark because their teeth are literally chattering from cold and drafty dog houses.

The Michigan Humane Society (MHS) has begun "Operation Cozy" to warm the hearts and bodies of man's best friend — particularly those unfortunates left outdoors during the winter.

Free bags of straw, one of nature's best insulators, may be picked up at the three area humane society shelters. Pet owners are asked to line their dog houses with the straw and tuck the plastic container bag on the door opening as a weather seal flap.

Dr. Bayley, MHS staff veterinarian advises owners to feed outdoor pets more often to provide extra cold weather energy. Steps also should be taken to keep food and water from freezing.

"Operation Cozy" was prompted by increasing reports from cruelty investigators that many dog houses do not provide adequate shelter as required by state law. Some owners said they were unable to purchase straw within the city.

Straw may be picked up from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday at the Michigan Humane Society West, 37255 Marquette, Westland.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE

Tomorrow's forecast from the Carroll Righter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Poor judgment is in effect in the morning. This could lead to trouble unless you are careful when making comments.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) A good day to talk over leisurely with associates what should be done to make joint relationships more satisfying.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You may want to start on a trip in the morning, but this would not be wise, since you have important matters to discuss with others first.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Take some time to plan your activities wisely and then carry through successfully.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Concentrate your efforts on home and family today and this becomes a most enjoyable day.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Spend time with good friends today even though it may mean traveling quite a distance.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) A good day to think over financial arrangements you want to make for the future and then put them down on paper tonight.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A good day to get together with persons you really like and have a good time, while counting your blessings and giving thanks.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Study a plan you have in mind for making the future greater for yourself and then discuss it later with the right people.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You will be able to make new and worthwhile friends today. A good day to join a new group that can accomplish a great deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Find the best way to gain the favor of those who count a great deal in your life and make this a most wonderful day.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You want to start a whole new set of conditions in your life and you are able to do just that provided you act quickly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Use your good hunches to come to a better understanding with others, especially those who mean much to you.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY he or she will be one of those charming young people who can become quite successful in life because of the fine artistic and cultural talents in this chart.

The Stars impel, they do not compel! What you make of your life is largely up to YOU! Carroll Righter's Individual Forecast for your sign for December is now ready.

Belleville Debate Team wins five tournaments

This looks like the year for the Belleville Senior High School Debate Team.

After five tournaments, each with an average of 50 schools from across the State of Michigan, participating, Belleville has emerged with 13 trophies.

These trophies are the result of winning four tournaments and placing third at the fifth. In the thick of competition the Varsity Team has kept a 77 percent win average while the Junior Varsity Team is close behind with 71 percent.

Considering the fierce competition that takes place in the debate world, any school that wins three out of four debates is doing very well according to school officials.

The topic which the students are debating is "Resolved. That all governmental financial support of elementary and public education should be provided exclusively by the federal government."

Several debaters have files on the topic containing more than 1,000 cards of evidence. In a debate, this evidence comes in very useful as a debate may be argued on anything from the equity of property tax to equal educational opportunity.

The debaters use their Saturdays to compete at tournaments, held at different high schools or colleges, usually in the nearby area.

As many as 60 schools from all over Michigan and part of Ohio may be competing in each of the three divisions.

A tournament usually has four one-hour rounds of debate after which the winner is chosen by a team's win-loss record and total speaker points.

Each team is composed of four debaters: two on affirmative and two on negative. Each member is ranked by points in each round and individual speaker awards are given at the end of the day.

This year, Belleville High School has a new debate coach. He is David Whit, who was a national champion in college debate.

Recently Belleville competed in the Royal Oak Kimball Tournament where they took first place in the Novice Division. The debate team has sent two teams to a "switch-side" tournament in Toledo, where more than 600 schools from all over the country will be competing. (In this type of debate, a team is made up of only two debaters who alternated debating negative with affirmative).

The history of the Belleville Debate Team is illustrious and today's team is giving their all to make Belleville High School Debate not only the team of the past, but of the present and the future.

Senior citizen units available

The first of several senior citizens housing developments in Westland, Independence Manor is nearing completion and is scheduled to open its doors to tenants in the next two weeks.

The private development on the corner of Palmer and Venoy roads were specifically conceived and designed for men and women over 55 who want to retain their "independence, security and dignity amidst attractive, luxurious surroundings," according to the management.

Services at the 60-unit complex will include maid, meal, linen and laundry and an optional chauffeur service. The studio apartment style living suites are completely furnished, yet allow for the tenants to bring some of their own furniture if they wish.

Other features at Independence Manor include an outdoor reflector pool, garden facilities, social lounge, library, dining room and recreation center, activities room and a utility center.

Mrs. Nancy Tessari is the building manager. The price for single units, including all of the service will be under $300 per month and double units will run close to $100 more per month. She pointed out that the price includes all of the services except the chauffeur service.

Mrs. Tessari added that model units are now open daily from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. For further information call 326-3344.

Teams are guests of Rotary Club

The Belleville Senior High School cross country team and football team were guests of the Belleville Rotary Club at the club's recent dinner-meeting.

The local Rotary club meets weekly at 6:15 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Belleville.

The guest speaker for this week's meeting will be John R. Herb from the American Committee Mutual Insurance Co. Local Rotarians who celebrated birthdays this month are Wilson Wood, Henry Deering and Tom Matulewitz.

Anniversaries were celebrated by Larry Button, James Sayre and R. Lynn Hamilton.

Moose notes

By BOB DOANE

The next Moose dance will be held Dec. 2 and will feature the Suspended Demensions, a rock group.

Plans also are being made for the Christmas party at the lodge which will be held Dec. 17. The enrollment will be held Dec. 16. Dancing will follow to the music of the Fabulous PT's.

Moose Governor George Manley said the Moose membership is more than 700 and is growing fast. He said that there is a possibility a new moose lodge will be situated on Belleville Lake.

There will be no legion breakfast this month because of the holiday and hunting season.

Fish fries are served from 5 to 8 p.m. every Friday. A sing-a-long follows at 7 p.m.

The club room telephone number has been changed. The new number is 699-9535.

School basketball season set to open

Romulus '5' is laden with talent

The word is out that the Romulus basketball team is loaded again this season.

Five of the players who helped the Eagles win 18 of their 21 games last winter are back and Coach Dave Court has two talented transfer students to help keep things rolling.

Romulus advanced to the regional finals before it was upset by Allen Park last season and Court, who is starting his third season as the school's coach, feels that this year's team has greater potential.

"We have the talent and I'm cautiously optimistic," said the Eagle coach. "We haven't really started to play as a unit yet, but I think that we'll be very tough once the season gets going."

Two of the players who make the Eagles look strong

Wednesday, November 29, 1972 Page B-1

are co-captains Ron Kersey and Tony Owens, a pair of seniors who have been regulars since they were sophomores.

The 5-9 Kersey is scheduled to be the pointman in Romulus' 1-3-1 offense.

The 5-11 Owens, the team's other guard, will be one of the wingmen.

Ron averaged five points per game in 1971-72 while Tony scored at the rate of 12 per game.

Both are good all-around ballplayers.

Rick Hubbert, a transfer from Ann Arbor Pioneer, will back up both Kersey and Owens.

Hubbert, a 5-10 junior, is a good outside shooter.

Forwards Calvin Harris and Ken McMann have graduated but the Eagles still look formidable in the front line with holdovers John Long, James Hall, and Horace Person and newcomer Ron Bostick.

Court regards Long as "one of the top players in the state."

The 6-5 junior forward averaged 25 points per game last year and he appears capable of big things again this season.

"John can do it all," says Court. "He can jump, he scores from inside and from outside, and he is also a good driver."

Long will operate from a wing position.

Hall, a 6-7 junior who averaged 17 points and was the team's top rebounder last year, will be one of the post-men.

James hit on 52 per cent of his shots from the floor as a sophomore.

The other starter will be Ron Bostick, a 6-9 senior who has transferred from Franklin K. Lane High School in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Bostick, who had a 20 point average last year, shoots well for a big man and is also a good rebounder.

Ron, who weighs 190 pounds, will probably play the high post with Hall down low.

The top reserve in the frontcourt will be 6-3 senior Horace Person.

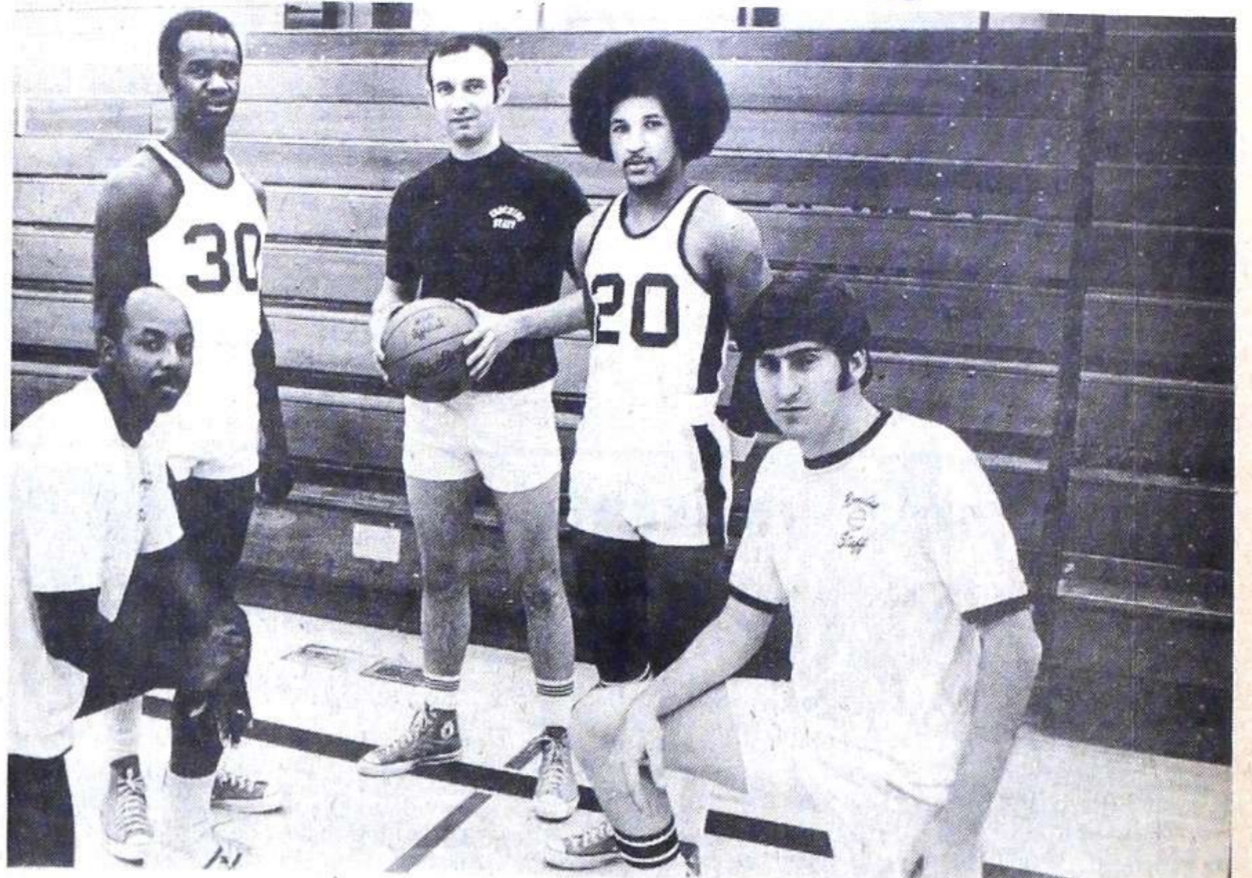

"Horace was our sixth man last year and he did a fine job," said Court. "He always hustles and he's a good all-around player."

Two guards who may also be counted on are Don Hamilton, a 5-8 senior who is a good playmaker, and Phil Franklin, a 5-10 junior, who is one of the team's better outside shooters.

Byron Garner, a 6-4 junior, and Joe Snipes, a 6-2 junior, provide added depth in the frontcourt while Les Davis, a 5-6 senior, and Darwin Harris, a 5-11 junior, are backcourt reserves.

"This is the most talented group I've had here," said Court. "We have a solid back-

Cicotte key for Belleville

Tigers look improved

Belleville is hoping to move up in the Suburban 8 League basketball race this season.

The Tigers finished with a 5-7 league record and a 7-10 overall mark in 1971-72 and Coach Al Gates feels that this year's team has the potential to be a winner.

"We have three players who provide us with a solid nucleus and we can be a contender if we're able to replace the men we lost," said the Belleville coach.

Seniors Al Cocotte, a 6-6 forward, Terry Pate, a 6-2 forward, and Jim "Shorty" Williams, a 5-8 guard, all saw extensive service last season.

But Mike Garland, who led the team in scoring with a 19 point average, has graduated as have regulars Marty Miller and Ed Branam.

Another loss is Keith Neely, a senior forward who moved to Oregon over the summer.

Cocotte, who averaged just under nine points per game in 1971-72, serves as the Tigers' co-captain with Williams.

The speedy Williams provides Belleville with an outside shooting threat. He's also a competent ballhandler.

Pate will provide the Tigers with added strength on the boards.

Terry, who was an end and linebacker on this fall's Belleville football team, had a seven point average last season.

Doug Meyer, a 6-1 senior who saw limited varsity service last year, will probably team up with Williams in the backcourt.

Brad Schlieff, a 6-4 senior, and Otty Turrentine, a 6-0 junior, are the top contenders for the forward spot opposite Pate.

Both players are good rebounders.

Three junior guards who are up from the junior varsity have pressed Meyer for the second guard spot.

These players are Al Roper, a 5-9 playmaker, Bruce Verrot, and Robin Hook. Verrot and Hook are both 5-11.

Willie Currie, a 6-4 junior, will serve as Cocotte's backup man.

Further depth will be provided by Charlie Brown, a 6-1 junior forward, and Lee Stiltner, a 5-11 junior guard.

Belleville will operate from a controlled offense and will utilize a man-to-man defense.

The Tigers, who have good team speed, will also make use of the press against many of their opponents.

Much of the team's strength lies in the versatility of Cicotte.

"Al is good under the boards and he can also hit the outside shot and handle the ball," said Gates. "This gives us the option of moving him outside and putting Schlieff in the post."

The Belleville mentor feels that his team has good balance but he admits that there are many strong teams in the Suburban 8.

"It will be a very tough fight and the favorite has to be Allen Park," said the Tiger mentor. "They have Tom Agardy, who is 6-11½, and a lot of other good players. Redford Union has a shot at retaining the title and Plymouth also looks good."

If things go well Gates thinks that Belleville will be able to improve on last year's fifth place finish.

The Tigers will be facing tough foes right from the start.

They host Ypsilanti in the season opener Friday. The Tiger junior varsity will face the Ypsilanti j.v. squad at 6:30, with the varsity game following.

Belleville will begin its league campaign when it hosts Redford Union on December 8.

Newcomers dot Chiefs' roster

There will be a lot of new faces on the New Boston Huron basketball team this season.

Dana Kemp is the only starter returning from last winter's team, which finished with a 1-16 record.

Coach Andy Herman is confident that the Chiefs will do better this time around, but he feels that his team may still face some rough going in the Huron Conference.

"We have some talented players, but we're inexperienced," said the Huron coach. "We also lack height and these factors are disadvantages which will be hard to overcome."

Kemp, a 5-10 senior who averaged better than six points per game in 1971-72, will hold down one of the wing positions for the Chiefs.

Huron will operate from either a 1-3-1 or 1-2-2 offense with junior Tim Hinojosa manning the high post.

The six-foot Hinojosa will make use of his quickness against the bigger opponents he will face throughout the season.

He and Kemp are the team's only returning lettermen.

One of the teams' important men will be Gary Whitehouse, a 6-2 senior who saw only limited varsity service last winter.

Whitehouse, who rebounds well for a man his size, will succeed the graduated Fred Cordts in the low post.

Cordts led the Chiefs in scoring last season with a 16 point average.

Howard LeBlanc and Joe Richert, a pair of 5-10 juniors who paced last year's junior varsity team in scoring, will also move in as varsity starters.

LeBlanc will play a wing while Richert, who is a good ballhandler, will direct the team's offense as the pointman.

Jim Pidgeon, a 5-9 junior, will serve as Richert's backup man while John Divetta, a 6-0 junior, will be a key reserve at forward.

Phil Rush, a 6-2 junior, is the top substitute for the post spots while Jim Stoker, a 5-8 junior, is a reserve guard.

Further depth up front is provided by Julian DeBacker and Jim Piggott, a pair of 5-11 juniors.

Jamie Hinojosa and Mario Gracia, two seniors who saw a lot of court time last season, have gone out for wrestling this winter.

The Chiefs will also be without the services of Ron Suemnick, a junior who lost a foot in an accident last summer.

Ron was one of the team's top shooters and Herman feels that he would have been able to win a starting job this season.

The Chiefs will be small and inexperienced but Herman feels that the team can compensate for this with hard work.

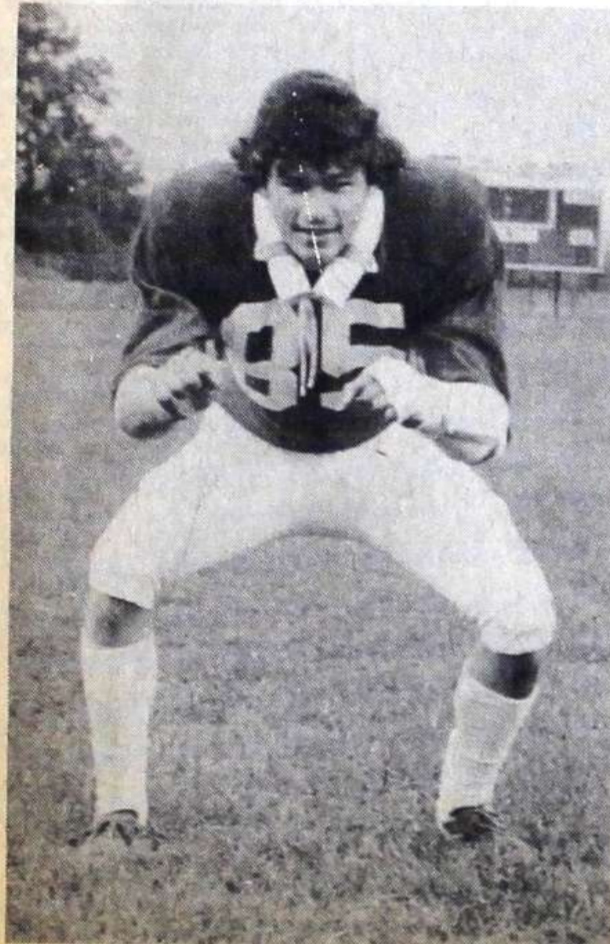

Herman looks for a close race in the Huron Conference with defending tri-champions Flat Rock, Grosse Ile, and Airport among those who will be in contention.

"There are a lot of strong teams in the league," he said. "But Tecumseh looks like the toughest. Most of the other league teams have at least one player who is 6-4 or bigger, so we'll almost always be facing players who have the height advantage."

Because of this height situation the Chiefs will rely almost exclusively on a zone defense.

Huron will open its season at Flat Rock Friday.

The Chiefs will take on Airport in their home opener on December 8.

ALL-STATE GRIDDER — Jamie Hinojosa of New Boston Huron was recently named to the Associated Press' Class B All-State football team. Hinojosa, a 6-2, 192 pound senior who starred as a receiver, running back, and linebacker for the Chiefs, was named to the 23-man All-State squad as an end.

Hinojosa named to All-State '11'

Jamie Hinojosa of New Boston Huron has been named to the Associated Press' 1972 Class B All-State high school football team.

Hinojosa, a 6-2, 192 pound senior, was named to the 23-man team as an end.

Belleville's Mike Dansard, a 5-9, 163 pound senior, was given special mention on the Class A All-State team as a halfback.

Hinojosa was an outstanding two-way player for the Chiefs as they posted a 4-5 record this season.

He played most of the season as a tight end, but he also spent two games as a running back.

Jamie caught 34 passes for 534 yards and four touchdowns and carried the ball 40 times for 228 yards and one touchdown.

He was a standout middle linebacker on defense, making 112 tackles.

"It's a big honor to make the All-Star team and it was also something of a surprise," said Hinojosa.

"I had a good quarterback, Mario Gracia, throwing to me and I feel that he deserves a lot of the credit," added the star Chief gridder.

Gracia and Hinojosa hooked up on three long touchdown passes in Huron's season-ending 41-7 victory over Monroe Jefferson.

"Jamie was outstanding in that final game and he also did a very good job in each of our other eight games," said

Huron Coach Jim Rossow. "He has good strength and speed and he always gave us a top-notch effort."

Hinojosa has earned seven varsity letters at Huron.

He plays baseball and is a member of the wrestling team. He played varsity basketball last winter.

Jamie's brother Tim, a junior, is a member of the Chiefs' baseball, football, and basketball teams.

He is the first Huron football player to win first team All-State honors. Halfback Glenn Dergansky was given special mention in 1970.

Hinojosa hopes to continue his athletic career in college.

Western Michigan and Northern Michigan are among the schools which he is considering.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hinojosa of 29761 West Road, New Boston.

Dansard carried the ball 202 times for 1261 yards for Coach Keith Emerson's Belleville team this season.

Mike, who also played defensive halfback, was the Tigers' top player as they finished with a 4-5 record in the tough Suburban 8 League.

Linebacker-guard Willie Smith of Dearborn Heights Robichaud was named to the Class B All-State team while Kevin Arnold of Livonia Churchill was a Class A All-State choice as a defensive end.

The players chosen for the Associated Press' Class B All-State team were:

Malecek feels that Garcia is a strong contender for the state championship at any weight between 126 and 138. Other wrestlers who figure prominently in the picture for the Tigers are junior Ray Wilson (132 or 126), junior Mark Zeestraten (118), senior Otis Bell (167), junior Dave Music (105), sophomore Steve Wilson (98), and senior Wayne Lucas (heavyweight).

One of the top wrestlers lost through graduation is Keith Simons, who finished second in the state in the heavyweight division.

Huron Coach Jim Rossow has a strong nucleus back from last year's team, which had a 14-7 overall record in dual meets.

The Chiefs tied for fifth place in the Huron Conference last season.

Senior tri-captains Larry Hartsuff, Paul Bertin, and Chuck Pearson, who will wrestle at 112, 119, and 138 pounds respectively head the returnees.

Other returning lettermen for the Chiefs are sophomore Keith Reitz (185), senior Tim Wood (126), junior Tim Bilbrey (132), and sophomore Bill Grover, who is the defending league champion in the heavyweight division.

TIGER MAINSTAYS - These players are slated to see regular duty for Coach Al Gates' Belleville basketball team this season. From left are Brad Schlieff, Doug Meyer, Al Cicotte, Jim "Shorty" Williams, and Terry Pate. The Tigers finished with a 7-10 overall record last season and Gates is looking for an improved showing in 1972-73.

Belleville swimming team faces a rebuilding season

This should be a rebuilding year for the Belleville swimming team.

Coach Sam Vicchy's Tiger mermen compiled an 11-3 overall record in 1971-72, but only seven lettermen are back and the squad will be hard pressed to equal last season's record.

"We've lost 12 seniors and the swimmers who will be replacing them, are mostly underclassmen," said Vicchy.

"These new boys have talent but, for the most part, they're inexperienced and they don't have that confidence which you pick up with varsity competition. So, it will be tough for us to do as well as last year's team."

The Tigers finished second in the Suburban 8 League last year and four of the top performers from that squad are back this season.

The top-notch returnees are seniors Dean Ackron, Jeff Liedel, Scott Stone, and Richard Volden.

They will be joined by junior lettermen Matt Byrnes, Dwight Bell, and Mark Fogarty and a host of sophomores.

Stone will specialize in the backstroke and freestyle while Ackron and Liedel will swim different events from meet to meet.

"Both Dean and Jeff are good all-around swimmers and we'll put them in the races where we think they have the best chances and can give us the most help," said Vicchy.

Ackron, Liedel, and Stone all advanced to the state meet last season.

Volden rates as one of the top divers in the league.

An added dimension for the team will be the presence of two female competitors - Sharon Ackron and Aleta Rice.

They are eligible for the team because of last spring's ruling which permits girls to compete against boys in non-contact high school sports in Michigan.

Byrnes will swim the breaststroke and individual medley and Fogarty is scheduled to swim the butterfly and freestyle.

Among the sophomores who Vicchy will be counting on are swimmers George Rohler, Kent Ferrier, Todd Humphrey, Dennis Harkness, Larry Bell, and Tim Raymond and diver Ray Leibler.

Vicchy reports that Sharon should help the team in the breaststroke and that Aleta will outscore most of her opponents in the diving competition.

But it does not appear that the newcomers will be able to make up for the slack left by such graduated swimmers as Jim Ackron, Barry Susterka, Brad Susterka, Jeff Fry, Curt Cullin, and Terry Mills.

"We'll be without a lot of swimmers who helped make us winners in the last two seasons and I hope that everyone realizes that this will have to be a rebuilding year," said Vicchy.

Vicchy, who is entering his third season as the Tiger coach, looks for defending Suburban '8 champion Dearborn to be tough again with Dearborn Edsel Ford and Allen Park challenging for the title.

"We might not be near the top this season," said the Belleville coach. "But I'm certain that our young swimmers will get us back there before too long."

The Belleville swimmers will open their season with a home meet against Dearborn Heights Annapolis at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

The Tigers will visit North Farmington next Tuesday and then host Ypsilanti at 7 p.m. on December 7.

Romulus looks powerful again

Romulus' strong point in the past two seasons has been defense and this is the area in which Court is working his team the hardest.

"We gave up more than 70 points in only four of the 43 games we played during the last two years," remarked the Eagle coach. "If we can do this again we won't lose very many ball games."

The Eagles face a tough schedule and Court feels they will be in good shape if they can win most of their games in December.

"It might be a while before our two new men fit together with the rest of the team," he said. "It might be a learning process for us, but if we come through December in good shape we could be one of the best Class A teams in the state by January."

But no matter how successful they are, the Romulus coach and his players feel that they are in for an exciting campaign.

"We always get great support from the fans in Romulus and from our school officials. I hope we can provide them with a lot of wins," said the Eagle mentor.

Romulus will open its season at New Haven next Tuesday.

The Eagles begin home activity on December 8, when they face Dearborn Heights Robichaud.

One of the highlights for Romulus, which plays a non-league schedule, will be the River Rouge Tournament in late December.

Flamers gain tie for lead

The Flamers have tied the Magic Numbers for first place in the Romulus Teachers Bowling League.

The Flamers swept four points last week while the Magic Numbers took three of four. Both teams have 27-13 records.

Turkeys were awarded to the bowlers who scored the highest above their average in the Thanksgiving Week competition.

The bowlers winning turkeys were Samuel Johnson, Debbie Juriga, Mike Kernohan, Russell Lockwood, Irene Abdo, Clairissa Brown, Cathy Sehley, Richard Wizgird, and Richard Brown. The top scores were:

High individual actual games: (Men) - Richard Wizgird, 214; Richard Brown, 199. (Women) - Aldrene Solomon, 176; Debbie Juriga, 168. High individual actual series: (Men) - Richard Wizgird, 560; Don Foley, 529; (Women) - Clairissa Brown, 452; Renee Mendoza, 442. High team actual games: The Southerners, 480; The Hustlers, 449. High team actual series: The Southerners, 1353; The Flamers, 1281. High team handicap games: The Southerners, 480; The Flamers, 456. Revival services set at Romulus church

The Rev. Allen Davis will be the guest speaker during a series of revival services at the Church of God of Prophecy, 7201 Kempa St., Romulus, beginning at 7:30 tonight and continuing through Dec. 3.

Rev. Davis has served as International Sunday School director for the organization's 3,000 Sunday Schools. Presently he is Overseer of Ohio and because of his unique ministry, he is in great demand for revivals, camp meetings and conventions, according to Pastor Benny Hart. The public is cordially invited.

Class set for mentally slow

By JIM CARRAVALLAH

A program to teach children with learning deficiencies the Catholic religion has been started in the area.

Sister Rita Marie, a member of the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth, has begun a religious education class for mentally slow children at St. Aloysius Parish in Romulus.

"We have revised the existing religious education program for pre-school children to teach the slow children," Sister Rita Marie said. "Our whole program is designed to teach children about God through the use of the senses."

A typical class would deal in a discussion of water, with the children being allowed to touch the substance and examine it while the teacher explains that God was the creator of all water.

"It's a slow process," the nun said. "It takes much patience and understanding to teach one of these children about God."

"One week, the child might come to class and repeat everything he learned the preceding week, and the next week, he may not be able to repeat a thing."

"For the teacher, it's a lot of repetition, but it is rewarding."

The holder of a masters degree in special education since 1958, Sister Rita Marie has taught religious education for special education children for the past seven years. She taught in Allen Park until last August, when she was transferred to Romulus to implement the program.

"The Vicariate decided that we needed a local place for special education, so they chose St. Aloysius," Sister Rita Marie said. "Right now, we have four children enrolled in the program, so there's plenty of room for more children."

Children attending the parishes of St. Anthony in Belleville, St. Mary in Wayne, St. Norbert in Inkster, St. Theodore in Westland, St. Damian in Westland, St. Raphael in Garden City, St. Dunstan in Garden City, St. Bernardine in Westland and Sts. Simon and Jude in Westland are eligible for the program which began earlier this month. The classes will continue every Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. until May.

The course costs $3 per person. The charge is used to purchase school supplies and other class materials.

"We attempt to keep the classes interesting for these children," explained the director. "We have them do such things as cutting out pictures and coloring, and we bring in movies on different topics when it is appropriate."

Rewards in the classes come often, especially at the time the students are ready to receive the Eucharist.

"I had one girl who was prepared for Holy Communion," Sister Rita Marie said. "She stood at the foot of the altar with her hands folded until the priest was ready to come down."

"When she saw him turn, she said, 'Me now. Me now.' "The priest went to her first, even though there were other children in line.

"It's the little things like that which make the work rewarding."

Besides Sister Rita Marie, two other people help with the classes. One young man is studying for a special education degree at Eastern Michigan University. The other helper is a high school-aged girl.

"We only want volunteers to work in the program," explained the director. "That way we know that they are really interested in working with the children."

"It takes a very special person to do this type of work."

Volunteers are needed for the program, which the nun expects to expand.

Information on volunteer work, as well as registration, can be obtained by calling Sister Rita Marie at 941-0716 after 2:30 p.m. weekdays.

During the early part of the day, the nun teaches second graders at St. Aloysius.

Radial, bias-belted tires offer no ice advantage

National Safety Council tests show that the new radial and bias-belted tires offer no advantage over conventional tires when driving on ice.

The tests show there are only small performance differences between the three types of tires on ice.

Bias-belted tires may show slightly higher stopping performance on ice, while radials may be slightly poorer in this respect. No significant difference showed up in either traction or cornering capacity.

Tests showed that the old reliable reinforced tire chains still provide the best performance on ice.

The National Safety Council's committee on winter driving hazards rates tire chains as providing more than seven times the traction of conventional tires on ice. Studded tires provide three times the traction of conventional tires but still less than half the traction of tire chains.

"Tire chains will stop your car in half the distance of conventional tires on ice," Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch said, "while studded snow tires provide a 19 per cent improvement."

"Loose snow is often a problem in Romulus." Under this condition, snow tires provide about 50 per cent more traction than conventional tires.

"Regardless of the type of traction equipment you use, you must take the time to get the feel of the road and then adjust your speed and driving habits accordingly."

Detroit institute opens display of terra cottas

A "first" for American museums, an extensive survey of the production of ancient and modern terra cottas in Africa South of the Sahara will be displayed at the Detroit Institute of Arts through Jan. 21.

More than 300 objects — sculptured ritual heads to functional, round beer pots — have been borrowed from private and public collectors on three continents for the exhibition in the South Wing.

Formally titled "African Terra Cottas South of the Sahara," this show will be seen exclusively in Detroit. The exceptional array of native African art also will afford a long list of related museum activities dramatizing the significance of clay in the life of African tribes.

Clay may be considered the most historic of materials used in both everyday life and in ritual and art forms, according to museum officials. The terra cottas are literally "baked earth" — and they are a vital part of traditional African life.

Terra cotta is the medium for objects necessary from birth to death, in the shrine as well as in the kitchen, from royal courts to private homes, from the market-place to the burial place.

A great part of the show's excitement is the personal uniqueness and the immediacy of the objects. Each was formed by individual potters working the clay. No wheel or other tool intrudes between the material and the hands of the maker.

"African Terra Cottas South of the Sahara" will be open to the public during regular museum hours: 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. The museum is closed Mondays and holidays.

Dog licenses are available

The sale of 1973 dog licenses will begin Dec. 1.

The license fee for male or unsexed dogs is $1.50 and for female dogs $2.50. Licensed purchased after March 1 will have a $1 penalty charge added.

Proof of rabies vaccination must be presented at the time of application for license. Licenses are required for all dogs in the city which are four months of age or older.

The Romulus treasurer's office, where licenses are issued, is located in the Romulus Municipal Building, 1111 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Dog pound is expanded

An expansion program involving present facilities at Van Buren Township Dog Pound has been completed.

A new section has been added to the present building housing the dog pound which has doubled the size of the building, located at Hannan and Tyler Roads.

The number of dog cages has been increased from seven to 11 by the addition and offices have been made created as well as other related space required for the operation of the pound.

A state law which requires that dogs be kept five days before disposal prompted to expansion.

Winterize your home

Get the most from your heating dollars

As America uses more and more energy, it becomes more important than ever to save the energy reserves we have. You can do your part right in your home.

To get the most from your heating dollars, and conserve valuable natural resources, the American Gas Association suggests that you make winterization a do-it-yourself project in 1972.

You'll find that it doesn't take much time or money, and you don't have to be a skilled carpenter or mechanic.

You'll save heating dollars all winter long — and you'll be doing your part to conserve fuel.

Insulation

First, be sure your home is well insulated. If it isn't you'll be throwing away money and wasting fuel, when both could have been avoided.

Start your do-it-yourself home winterization at the top of your house, and work your way down.

Since heat rises, cracks and crevices under the roof are usually responsible for the greatest heat loss. If the attic isn't insulated, it will be worthwhile to do it yourself.

You can buy insulating material at most department, hardware and building supply stores.

A 4-inch thickness of insulating material placed between the rafters provides an adequate insulation. Insulating batts, placed between the overhead joists or tacked inside the roof, also provide good insulation. The fuel economy more than makes up for the minor cost of insulating supplies.

Now, work your way down the attic stairs and into each room in your home. If you can feel drafts of cold air, you can be sure your heating dollars are being wasted. Find out where the cold air is coming from and seal the area tightly.

Check all places in your home where corners meet. If they don't meet tightly, a strip of insulating material will keep out the draft.

If the air is entering from under a door, a "door" sweep, nailed to the bottom of the door, will provide effective insulation.

A window or door can be tightly sealed by a roll of felt

INSULATING WINDOWS — In winterizing your home make sure windows are well insulated. Heating costs will go down when windows and doors are properly insulated. Check windows inside and out for air leaks.

What you probably never knew about aluminum and never bothered to ask:

Bare aluminum will turn gray over a period of time outdoors, but the change of color can be prevented by coating it with lacquer or wax that doesn't contain an abrasive or cleaning agent.

When aluminum is said to be anodized, it means that it has been treated by an electrolytic action to give it a protective or decorative coat. Anodized aluminum changes color, too, but much more slowly.

Painted or porcelainized aluminum will not change color. When cleaning painted aluminum, water should be used first, then a mild soap. Porcelainized aluminum is so hard that it can be cleaned with any type of powder and soap.

When cleaning painted aluminum house siding, the long, hollow-handled brush sold for car washing may be used. Wash from the bottom up and keep all the washed area wet until that side of the house is finished. This will prevent streaking.

If you intend to paint new aluminum, the oil or grease applied at the factory to protect it during shipment must be washed off with a phosphoric acid available at most paint and hardware stores. When the aluminum has dried thoroughly, it should be primed with an exterior metal primer, preferably zinc chromate where corrosive conditions exist.

Mirror-bright aluminum cooking pots can be washed only with soaps and detergents. Polishes and nylon pads usually will dull their finish. If the inside of an aluminum pot becomes blackish after cooking eggs or similar food in it, the coloring will neither harm the food nor the pot. However, if the color is disturbing, it can be removed by boiling in it water to which cream of tartar has been added — two tablespoons to each quart of water. Boil about seven or eight minutes.

An aluminum boat will resist corrosion without cleaning, polishing or painting it. If you decide to paint it for appearance's sake, use a paint especially designed for aluminum, not a mercury, arsenic or copper-base anti-rusting paint.

While aluminum is exceptionally resistant to corrosive attack, galvanic corrosion may occur under certain conditions if any dissimilar metal is fastened to it. If aluminum fasteners are not used, a bituminous paint coating or insulating tape is recommended.

Sweating windows and walls, and balky doors and windows are among the 35 subjects discussed in Andy Lang's handbook, "Practical Home Repairs," available by sending $1 to this newspaper in care of Box 5, Teaneck, N.J. 07666.

Q.—I have read many times about ways of correcting mildew in basements and on the sidewalls of a house, but I have a new problem. Mildew collects on the clothes in one of the closets in our house. What can be done about it?

A.—Yours is not a new problem. It usually happens in a closet on an outside wall and in one in which dampness is present because of condensation. As soon as you make the closet warmer and drier, the mildew will be unable to grow. This can be done in any one of a number of ways and, in severe cases, in several ways.

If it is impractical to keep the closet door open all the day, replace the present door or metal stripping, available at most hardware stores.

Cracks between window or door frames and the walls, both inside and out, should be sealed. If the cracks are small, readymade rope putty may be placed on top of the crack and pushed into it with your fingers. Larger cracks should be stuffed with an insulating material, and then sealed with a caulking compound.

Storm windows and storm doors are, of course, excellent insulation. If you have them, be sure they are right fitting. Often a few dollars worth of weatherstripping will close off an expensive heat escape route.

Storm windows

If you don't have storm windows and doors, make your own. Use clear plastic as a substitute for manufactured storm windows and doors.

Available in most hardware stores, the plastic comes on rollers or in pre-cut kits already cut to standard window size. Tack, staple or tape the plastic either inside or outside the window, and over all screen doors.

While it's a good idea to insulate windows and doors on all sides of the house, pay special attention to the north and west sides, which get the full blast of winter winds.

If you have a fireplace with a damper, make sure the damper works, and that it is kept closed when the fireplace isn't in use. If the fireplace has no damper, block the opening with a movable cover — such as a piece of plywood or insulating board.

Remember, though, that it's also important not to over-insulate your home. To keep your home comfortable, clean and healthy be sure that some fresh air is able to circulate in the house.

Heating system

After you've made sure your house is well insulated, check your heating system. No matter what type of system you have, if it isn't working efficiently, you'll waste money and fuel.

There are several things you can do yourself to be sure your heating system operates at maximum efficiency.

Check the radiators, grills, vents and registers in every room to be sure they are free of obstructions. If the heat outlets are covered or blocked by furniture, books, knick-knacks or other odds and ends, the heat they carry won't be able to enter the room.

Pipes or ducts which are out in the open and not insulated lose some of the heat they carry before it reaches its final destination.

Low cost, fireproof insulation is available at building supply stores or hardware stores. Wrap the insulation around the open pipes where they run through unheated areas, such as in crawl spaces, the basement or the attic.

While you are checking your home for uninsulated pipes or ducts, also check for air leaks, especially around the connecting joints. Warm air leaking out into unheated spaces can be costly. Usually, the leak can be repaired with cloth adhesive tape.

If you have a humidifier, be sure it is working properly. If you don't have a humidifier consider the advantages of installing one.

When the humidity in a home is low, most people turn the furnace up — so fuel costs go up, too. A humidified house, especially during very cold weather is more comfortable, and the furnace operates more efficiently.

Furnace

In your home winterization program, don't overlook the most important part of your heating system — your furnace. It only takes a few minutes to check your furnace and be sure it will be operating properly the day you need it. First, check that your furnace is clean and the area around it is not cluttered with paintcans, newspapers, and trash. Lubricate the parts of the furnace that require it and change the filter.

And when you buy the new filter, buy extra ones; they are generally very inexpensive. When you keep the furnace filter clean — especially during very cold weather — your furnace provides more heat and fuel economy. If the pilot on your furnace has been turned off, follow the instructions on the plate attached to the furnace to light it. When there are no instructions, check with your utility company.

Don't attempt to light your furnace until you are sure you know how to do it correctly. The furnace should start up with no trouble and there is no need to do anything further. If, however, you have problems, this is one area which you should not try to do-it-yourself. Call the local utility company for assistance. But, call early. One company reported that it received 14,000 requests for service on a single day once the cold weather came.

Q.—Some time ago you wrote about using a shellac stick to fix a damaged table top. My local hardware store does not carry it. The clerk says he never heard of it. Can you help me?

A.—While some hardware stores do not have much for shellac stick and do not handle it, only someone with a limited knowledge of wood finishing is unaware of its existence. A shellac stick is made of hardened shellac about the size of a very fat pencil. Try your local paint store or lumber yard. If still unable to purchase one, try a wood finishing establishment, getting the name from the commercial directory pages of your phone book. Shellac sticks are inexpensive and come in various shades, so it's a good idea to buy several of them so that you can obtain a good match with your furniture.

Gun course generated 'interest'

A recently held gun safety course for certification under the provisions of Michigan hunting laws for young boys and girls has generated a "great deal of interest. Another similar program is being planned by the Van Buren Township Department of Recreation.

William A. Loyd, recreation director said the recreation department may sponsor a second program if sufficient interest is shown.

The first course held in September at the South Junior High School in Belleville, attracted a large class.

One hundred and thirty eight boys and girls were instructed in gun safety by Charles W. Bole, president of the Van Buren Board of Education and a local gun expert.

Bole, who also is an instructor for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) was assisted in the gun safety course by William Nagy, Belleville High School teacher (frist aid); Richard Wall, Belleville police officer (rifle and rifle ammunition), and John Bole, manager of the Thunderbird Gun Club, Belleville, (shotgun and shotgun ammunition).

To register interest in another class, call 697-9160. If a sufficient number apply a second class may be taught the first or second week of December.

The registered persons will be notified as to the exact dates, times and location. The class will be limited to 40 or 50 so early registration is encouraged.

The boys and girls who successfully passed the initial gun safety class are:

Jon Snyder, Jack Eaton, David Jackson, Tracy Potter, Robert Ostrowski, Thomas Kendrick, Ronald Evans, William Jwe, David Lipe, and Bryan Wade.

School bus accidents are at an increase

Ten persons, six of them under 20 years of age, were killed and 726 others were injured in 1,566 school bus and related type accidents in the Michigan 1971-72 school year, according to the State Police traffic division summary.

Compared with the record totals of the previous year, there were seven fewer deaths and three fewer injuries but an increase of 251 in accidents for a new high.

Of the total accidents, deaths occurred in nine, while 460 were classed as injury mishaps and 1,097 were catalogued as property damage only.

The breakdown by the three main accident types:

Physically Involving School Buses — there were eight persons killed, five under 20 years old, and 569 injured in 1,098 of these accidents. The previous year had nine killed and 471 injured in 919 mishaps.

Associated type accidents — 202 of these accidents resulted in one death (under 20 years) and 95 injured. The previous year had eight deaths and 66 injured in 122 accidents. These are accidents in which other vehicles cause injury to persons before boarding or after leaving buses.

Other associated type accidents — those involving vehicles affected by the stopping of buses — numbered 266 resulting in one death and injuring 162 persons. The previous year had no deaths and 192 injured in 274 accidents.

There were 927,707 students transported daily in 10,317 buses which traveled a total 89 million miles in 1971-72.

In the school year State Police officers inspected 11,091 buses, with 9,814 approved for a passing percentage of 89. There were 3,625 reinspections, making a total of 14,675 bus inspections by the State Police in 670 school districts.

District court places area man on probation

Richard Fitzgerald 15925 Harrison St., Romulus, has been placed on a year's probation by the 34th District Court for violating city zoning laws.

Fitzgerald, who was sentenced by visiting Judge James McCann of Livonia, was charged with conducting a junk car and repair service at his residence.

Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch testified that Fitzgerald had four junk cars and parts in his yard in addition to welding equipment and auto cutting equipment.

Any further operation of this business will constitute a violation of his probation and result in a 30-day jail term, the police chief said.

Fitzgerald was one of many Romulus residents in the Applewoode and Meadowdale subdivisions, who have been warned about violations of city ordinances and zoning regulations in the city's clean-up campaign.

The largest wasp is the female North American ichneumon, measuring 4 1/4 inches from her head to the tip of her egg-laying tubes.

Jaycees 'go to jail'

Members of the Romulus Jaycee will spend "time" in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson Saturday.

The Jaycees will visit the prison to attend a meeting of the inmate chapter of more than 200 Jaycees.

In addition, the Romulus Jaycees will deliver four 50-gallon bags of used postage stamps to be used as coupons to obtain goods for needy families.

The Jaycees attending the prison chapter will be Phil McNett, Mike Pawelak, Carl Reinhackel, Lee Silvey, Tom VonGlahn and Ray Wood.

Christmas bazaar set

The Altar Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Romulus will hold its annual Christmas bazaar from noon until 6 p.m. Sunday.

The bazaar will be held in the school hall, located on Melville Street at Ozga Road. A chicken and meat balls dinner will be served from noon until 5 p.m.

Many articles are being made by the ladies of the Altar Society such as aprons, pillow cases, Christmas decorations and home made baked goods. As in past years, there will be a prize drawing every hour.

Belleville approves rezoning

The Belleville City Council Monday night approved the rezoning of a six-acre parcel of land, located on Sumpter Road between Owen and Spencer for the construction of a shopping center.

The land parcel presently zoned R-M (multiple dwelling) was changed by the city council to B-3 (general business). The council's approval was unanimous.

In other business, the council approved the hiring of Wade, Trim & Associates, Inc., of Taylor as city consulting engineers subject to an approval of the firm's rate and fee schedule.

The firm would replace the engineering firm of Brender & Hamil & Associates Inc., of Plymouth.

The council also approved the October report filed by the police department.

MLCC approves license

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission (MLCC) has approved a special designated license (SDM) requested by Charles L. Irvine, 30881 Ecorse Rd., Romulus.

The MLCC's approval is subject to a final inspection by local law enforcement agency and the MLCC. A SDM license is for the sale of beer and wine for off the premise consumption.

Romulus Service Mothers Club will be held Monday at the Romulus Progressive Club Hall on Ozga Road. Pot luck supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the business meeting will follow.

A combination Thanksgiving Eve service was held by the Romulus St.

Aloysius Catholic Church and the Community United Methodist Church at the latter church on Olive Street.

There was music by Sister Marianne and her group of youngsters and by the Community United Methodist Choir directed by Mrs. Ada Scott. Miss Nancy Fuller of New Boston was the organist. Father Joe Kernosek and Rev. Hal Ferris joined in conducting the service of thanksgiving.

A bridal shower was held at the Hilton Inn in Romulus by Miss Vickie Block, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delton Block of Tobine Road. The party was given by the bride-elect's grandmother, aunt and sister and there were about forty-five guests attending.

Vickie will become the bride of Gary Paris, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Paris of Hannan Road, Belleville, next month.

Miss April Forintos, Michigan State University freshman, East Lansing, spent the Thanksgiving weekend at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Forintos of Pennsylvania Road.

Mrs. Josephine Rehkopf of Goddard Road spent the Thanksgiving weekend visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Laughlin, near Boston, Mass.

James Morris, Central Michigan University freshman, was home for the Thanksgiving weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morris, on Huron River Drive South. The Morris entertained at a family dinner on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Szabo of Romulus Avenue, their grandsons, Jeffrey and Michael Szabo of Wayne, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant VanAernum of Romulus Avenue, drove to Howell Sunday to visit with the Richard Barkers. Mrs. Barker is the former Mary Ann Szabo.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant VanAernum of Romulus Avenue entertained at a family Thanksgiving dinner Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Szabo of Romulus Avenue returned home recently from a week's vacation trip to Spain with friends.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING WAYNE COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS

AIRPORT CONSTRUCTION

The Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan announces that, pursuant to Section 16(d) of the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-258), it will hold a Public Hearing concerning a proposed new runway and related facilities at Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport. The Hearing will commence at 6:00 P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on January 5, 1973 at Romulus Senior High School, 9650 South Wayne Road, Romulus, Michigan 48174.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The proposed new runway will serve airline operations for domestic and international, as well as air cargo and general aviation activities. It will be constructed in a northeast-southwest alignment parallel to the two existing northeast-southwest runways. The runway will be 2,000 feet southeast of the existing Runway 3R-21L, and will be 10,000 feet long and 150 feet wide with a supporting taxiway system. The proposed construction will include, in addition to the runway-taxiway system, necessary runway and taxiway lighting, required navigational aids, security fencing and a new storm drainage system outletting to a new retention basin. To accommodate this runway-taxiway system it will be necessary to relocate Eureka Road and to relocate the existing perimeter drainage ditch. It will be necessary to utilize 1,524 acres of land for these improvements, which have been or will be acquired.

The Hearing will afford interested persons, groups, and agencies an opportunity for public consideration of the economic, social and environmental effects of the proposed new runway and related facilities and its consistency with the goals and objectives of such urban planning as has been carried out by the community. "Social, economic, and environmental effects" mean the direct and indirect benefits or losses to the community as a result of the proposed development. These benefits or losses may include but are not limited to effects on:

- Safe and efficient use of the Airport;
- Economic activity;
- Public health and safety;
- Property values; and
- The human and natural environment, including:
 - Displacement of persons and replacement housing;
 - Sound;
 - Neighborhood character and location;
 - Fish and wildlife;
 - Historic, natural, scenic, and recreation areas;
 - Water and air quality;
 - Land use;
 - Protection and enhancement of natural resources and the quality of environment; and
 - Feasible and prudent alternatives to potential adverse effects on the environment, including consideration of need for the proposed development.

Interested parties may present oral testimony of their views concerning these matters. Although it is not mandatory, the Wayne County Road Commission requests those intending to make oral presentations at the Hearing to notify the Board in writing or by telephone to: Mr. Charles Van Deusen, Project Director, Mezzanine, L. C. Smith Terminal, Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport, Detroit, Michigan 48242, Telephone: Area Code 313, 941-4891, by Tuesday, January 2, 1973. Anyone wishing to submit questions for comment by the Road Commission in its presentation at the Hearing are invited to do so in writing to the above address. In addition, written statements and other exhibits relating to these matters will be incorporated into the transcript of the Hearing, provided such statements or exhibits are submitted to: Mr. James M. Davey, Managing Director of the Wayne County Road Commission, 7th Floor City-County Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226, Telephone: Area Code 313, 224-2002, by January 29, 1973. Such written statements or other exhibits may be submitted by any interested party whether or not such party participates in the oral Hearing.

In order to afford all those desiring to express their views an opportunity to be heard, each speaker should plan to limit the oral presentation to ten minutes or less. If this time allocation will not provide an adequate opportunity for a fair oral presentation of your views, please contact Mr. James M. Davey, Managing Director of the Board, in advance of the Hearing. In addition to oral presentations, written statements and other exhibits without any length limit are welcomed to supplement the oral presentation, all of which will be incorporated into the transcript.

The Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan are required pursuant to FAA Order 5050.2 and Section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190) to prepare a preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement relating to the proposed runway project. This environmental statement is based on studies performed by the environmental consultants to the Board, R. Dixon Speas Associates, Inc., 47 Hillside Avenue, Manhasset, Long Island, New York, New York 11030, the Mitre Corporation, 1820 Dolley Madison Boulevard, McLean, Virginia 22101, and the staff of the Wayne County Road Commission.

At the Hearing copies of the following documents will be available for review by those attending:

- The Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Statement.
- The Airport Layout Plan.
- The applicable sections of the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970; the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; and FAA Order 5050.2.

Copies of the following documents will be distributed at the Public Hearing:

- A summary version of the Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.
- The Airport Layout Plan.
- A limited number of copies of the Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.

The following documents will be available for review at the Office of the Airport Project Director, Mezzanine, L. C. Smith Terminal, Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport, Detroit, Michigan 48242, Telephone: Area Code 313, 941-4891:

- Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.

- The Airport Master Plan.
- The Airport Layout Plan.
- The applicable sections of the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970; the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; and FAA Order 5050.2.
- The Passenger Terminal and Cargo Facilities Master Plan Report prepared by Arnold Thompson Associates, Inc., dated June 1972.
- The Landrum & Brown Master Plan Report for Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport dated 1967.
- The Master Plan documents of the communities adjacent to the Airport.
- The applicable air and water quality standards.
- Relevant communications concerning the National Airport System Plan.

These documents will be available for review thirty (30) days prior to the Public Hearing and for twenty-one (21) days after the Public Hearing.

To aid in the dissemination of the vital information concerning this Public Hearing, the 19 locations listed following this paragraph have agreed to offer the following documents during the hours listed for the 30 days prior to the Public Hearing and for 21 days after the Public Hearing. The documents available at these locations are:

- A copy, for review at that location, of the Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement.
- A summary of the Preliminary (Draft) Environmental Impact Statement which interested parties may feel free to take.
- The Airport Layout Plan which interested parties may also take.

It should be noted that any of the three documents listed above will be mailed, upon request, to any individual upon calling or writing the Airport Project Director at the address and telephone number listed above.

Scuba classes offered

Scuba (self-contained underwater breathing apparatus) instructions for beginners, 15 to 50 years of age, is being offered by the Van Buren Township Recreation Department.

The program is being taught by Klaus Lindemann, a member of the National Association of Underwater Instructors (NAUI).

The program includes both classroom and pool instructions in basic equipment and techniques, physiology, first aid, effects of pressure, bends and decompression, marine life, oceanography and limnology.

After successful completion of the course, students are certified by NAUI.

All interested persons should register during the fall-winter program, because the cost of the program will be increased during the summer program, according to the director. Call 697-9160 for information.

Early winter ice causes drownings

With five Michigan ice-break drownings already on record this fall, the Michigan State Police remind parents, sportsmen and outdoor fans that early winter ice can be treacherously thin on lakes, streams and other outdoor water areas.

Parents especially are urged to repeatedly caution their children about outdoor ice dangers.

Ice breakthrough drownings this month claimed two youngsters at Howell and another at Mancelona and two young men near Jackson.

To safely bear human weight, ice should be at least three inches thick. For snowmobiling the thickness should be four or more inches and for fishermen cars from one — to two — feet in depth, state police estimate.

Freezing weather generally has not been prolonged or severe enough in the state to produce reasonably safe thickness, officers point out.

Safety precautions are recommended for anyone engaged in any activity on ice surfaces in winter months outdoors.

These should include supervision of youngsters where possible and provisions for rescue in event of an accident, such as having a rope, pole, ladder, or buoyant object handy to help a victim reach safety. Never assume ice surfaces are safe because they look safe, the state police emphasize.

Moving water under some ice surfaces, such as on rivers and streams, can increase shin ice dangers.

Including the five this month, falls through ice have claimed 11 lives in Michigan so far this year. As of October, the state's water accident toll included 250 reported drownings and 107 persons injured.

The toll for 1971 included 269 drownings and 257 persons injured in 636 accidents.

Bank donates plaque to city administrators

A commemorative plaque honoring members of the current and previous administrations of the City of Romulus responsible for the construction of the city's new civic center was presented to the Romulus City Council last night.

The presentation of the plaque was made by Howard Dubisky, chairman of the Romulus Building Authority, builders and operators of the civic center. The plaque was contributed to the authority by the Romulus branch of the Manufacturers National Bank.

Leo Kalota, vice president of Manufacturers National Bank and manager of the Romulus branch, and secretary of the building authority, said that the

Romulus fire fighter is praised

A resolution commending the Romulus Fire Department for its excellence and heroism displayed during an explosion and subsequent fire at the Propane Services Inc., 7200 Inkster Rd., Romulus, was recently approved by the Romulus City Council.

The explosion, which occurred on Nov. 1, caused numerous small propane gas tanks to ignite creating an extremely hazardous condition for nearby residents and citizens of surrounding neighborhoods, is still under investigation as to cause.

The resolution of the Romulus City Council commended Captain Jim Haislip of the Romulus Fire Department who "exemplified himself and the excellence of the Romulus Fire Department by disregarding possible personal harm and crawling under a 18,000 gallon tank, which was feeding the fire, and closing it off."

Girl Scouts hold party

Girl Scout Troop 269 in New Boston recently hosted a Tupperware party. Proceeds of the party will be used toward a planned trip to Niagara Falls.

Guests at the party were entertained by a piano solo, song-flute trio and group singing.

Members of the troop have been busy selling Girl Scout calendars and sending cards (made by the girls) to patients at the Van Buren Convalescent Home in Van Buren Township.

plaque, which will hang in the city council chambers, is being presented as a "special tribute to members of the present and previous administrations in recognition of their able planning and dedicated effort initiating the construction of this civic center."

The city's civic center is located on the southeast corner of Goddard and S. Wayne Road.

The first two buildings of the civic center: Romulus Municipal Building and Romulus Public Library have been completed and were dedicated in June, 1971.

Two other structures planned for the civic center are a new court house and police headquarters.

New Boston resident gets himself 'involved'

There have been many instances reported around the country of people who "didn't want to get involved" when criminal acts were being committed in their presence.

On Thanksgiving Day a New Boston resident did get involved and as a result State Police at the Flat Rock post have arraigned a Belleville resident on breaking and entering charges and a second man is under investigation.

Arraigned before 33rd District Court Judge Gerald McNally of Trenton was Theodore F. Simmons, 23, of 45425 Willis Rd., Belleville. He is being held under a $3,500 bond pending a pre-trial examination scheduled tomorrow in the 34th District Court in Romulus.

Jerry Murphy, 49, of New Boston, whose alertness and quick action over-powered defendant Simmons as he emerged from the burglarized home, located at 25330 Carlton-West Rd., New Boston, Monday described events leading up to the arrest of Simmons.

A second man involved in the break-in of the home during the absence of the occupants, escaped in a light-colored car that had been parked in the driveway of the home.

"I was out in the yard near the wood pile making outside fireplaces. My neighbors, residing about 300 yards down the road, were away and I was asked to keep a watch on their home.

"Around 7:30 p.m. I noticed a light colored car parking in the driveway and lights on in the house. A man walked from the back door to the front door of the house. He jumped over the front porch, got into the car, drove the car out of the driveway and then backed into the driveway with the front of the car facing the roadway.

"I went into my home and got my gun. I told the wife what I saw and then got into my pick-up truck and proceeded to the house. One of the two men got into the car and headed my way. I swung the truck across the road in an effort to stop him and also to get the license number. He backed up and raced north to Judd Road."

Murphy said that he approached the home and a second man (later identified by police as Simmons) came out the back door with two guns (both stolen from the home). One of the guns was loaded, Murphy said.

Murphy added that he wrestled with the defendant for about 10 minutes before subduing him. "My presence so surprised him and I think that helped a lot," Murphy said.

Murphy, armed with a shot gun said that he had persuaded the man to drop the guns. "He started to pick up one of the guns but failed when I again grabbed him and held him at bay until the State Police arrived.

Murphy, who is employed as a road grader for the Wayne County Road Commission, is the father of two sons and one daughter.

State Police later arrested a second man whose identity was not disclosed pending a fingerprint check.

"What I did is what any good neighbor would do," Murphy said.

CIVIL DEFENSE SESSION — The Southeastern Michigan Civil Defense Directors Association (SEMCCA) held its regular monthly business meeting at the Romulus Municipal Building last week. Discussing civil defense programs are (from left) Col. Arthur Becker, association president; Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of Romulus, Eugene Wilson, director of Romulus' Civil Defense Department and Romulus Police Chief Jacob J. Koch.

Commissioners to seek rehabilitation funds

Approval to seek nearly $4 million more of federal, state and local money to finance narcotics treatment and rehabilitation programs has been granted by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The commissioners authorized four separate grant applications to be submitted by the Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Services Board, which also would administer the programs.

The largest grant request is an appeal for mostly federal funds issued through the National Institute of Mental Health and would total $2,797,708.

The resignation of Charles Unseld, assistant football coach also was accepted by the board, as was that of Steven Reese, an adult education teacher, who will continue as a member of the regular teaching staff in the school district.

The appointment of Harold Rinne, as maintenance custodian at Riverside Elementary School was confirmed by the board before adjourning to executive session.

Of this amount, $310,000 would come from state sources and $209,340 from nine Wayne County cities and townships, and the Detroit Rotary Club. The program would provide services for periods up to one year.

The cities involved are Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Garden City, Romulus, Inkster, River Rouge, Taylor, Livonia, Plymouth and Redford Township.

Another grant program totaling $515,556 is planned to provide drug rehabilitation for inmates of the Detroit House of Correction (DeHoCo), plus after-care for those treated for drug problems while incarcerated there.

Staff for this one-year project would be furnished by two established drug treatment centers, SHAR House and Alexandrine House. SHAR House would administer the program for women and Alexandrine House for men.

The commissioners also authorized an application to fund a methadone maintenance and detoxification program for drug dependent persons referred by the courts as an alternative to trial or sentence. This program began in January, but $400,000 more is being sought to extend it through June, 1973.

An application for $170,150 to fund a one-year TWI-DA House project also was approved by the commissioners. TWI-DA House was established by former addicts who help professional staff members run a therapeutic program based on experience rather than theory.

None of the grant programs require county expenditures, and could conceivably end when grant funds are expended.

JOSEPH E. GROBBEL, the warehouse foreman of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority will retire Dec. 31, after more than 25 years of service. One of his main responsibilities has been to keep track of thousands of items necessary to operate the metropolitan park system and the warehouse which is located in the center of Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford.

Board hears report on outdoor education

The Huron Board of Education Monday night heard a presentation by school psychologist Arthur Palmer, on the outdoor education that has been, and is, being carried out in the school district.

basketball coaches were appointed. They were David Schultz, junior varsity; Gene Smith, ninth grade; Bob Kelly, eighth grade, and George Breaz, seventh grade.

The presentation included outlines on the summer outdoor program, the weekend nature hikes and overnight camping trips on the part of students and their instructors.

The board also received bids on an 18-passenger mini-bus for the school district, with the action tabled for further study of the bids.

The board also appointed Miss Jennifer Wolin, a Spanish teacher at the Huron High School, as sponsor of the cheerleaders, and four

The resignation of Charles Unseld, assistant football coach also was accepted by the board, as was that of Steven Reese, an adult education teacher, who will continue as a member of the regular teaching staff in the school district.

The appointment of Harold Rinne, as maintenance custodian at Riverside Elementary School was confirmed by the board before adjourning to executive session.

There was no action taken on administrative contracts at the meeting, and the regulations and policies in regard to the hiring of bus drivers was tabled for further revision and study before the session adjourned.

The next regular meeting of the Huron Board of Education is scheduled for Dec. 18.

Road Patrol open house set

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department will be holding an open house at its Road Patrol station Dec. 16. Citizens of Wayne County are invited to attend the Saturday open house to see the department in action.

The department will be open for visiting from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. In co-operation with the Romulus Police Community Relations Team the department has set up several displays and officers will be on hand to answer questions.

Groups numbering more than 12 persons are requested to call 941-3333 to arrange scheduling of visits.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Patrol and Investigation Division is located on Henry Ruff Road at Michigan Avenue near Wayne County General Hospital.

The township board is expected to name new legal counsel as well as make new appointments to boards and commissions this week.

Thornton Hopson resigns as counsel

Thornton Hopson, Van Buren Township's legal counsel since 1962, has submitted his resignation.

Hopson is a Detroit resident and a member of the Detroit law firm of Berry, Hopson, Francis and Mack.

A new and Republican board of trustees including incumbent supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer elected by the voters in the November general election were administered their oath of office on Nov. 20.

The township board is expected to name new legal counsel as well as make new appointments to boards and commissions this week.

Inspector issues another warning

Romulus' Building Inspector Clayton W. Meldrum warned Romulus residents Monday to be on the alert for unlicensed and "fly-by-night" building contractors and home modernization firms.

Romulus residents have been fleeced out of $50,000 in "shoddy," incomplete and some times "unnecessary" home repairs, he said.

Last week he said more than 75 Romulus homeowners have complained about the tactics employed by some of the contractors on unsatisfactory work performance.

Clayton also said his initial warning last week brought additional information to his department which is being investigated.

In the armed services

Army private David M. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, 2705 Bartlett Rd., Pleasant Lake, recently completed eight weeks of basic training at the U.S.

Army training Center, Armor, Ft. Knox, Ky.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1970 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School. His wife, Wendy, lives at 17922 Sumpter Rd., Belleville, Mich.
